Q. IV. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, the twenty-six following:—

(1.) GRIFFITH HUGHES; who was born at Llan-y-goetre, near Pwllheli, in Carnarvonshire, on the 23d of September, 1783. He was trained by his parents in the fear of God, but grew up to manhood without religious decision. In 1802 he was deeply convinced of sin, under a sermon by the Rev. Edward Jones, of Bathafarn. In the following year he became a partaker of the saving grace of God, and united himself with the Society at Carnarvon. Soon afterwards he began to preach, and in 1804 was sent to commence a Mission in Merionethshire. He founded several Societies, and numbered among the fruit of his labours two men who subsequently attained to "a good degree" as able and faithful Ministers of Christ in the Principality,—the late Revs. Lewis Jones, and Edward Anwyl. His name first appeared on the Minutes of Conference in 1805, when he was stationed at Ruthin. From that time, with an interval of two years, when failing health obliged him to rest, he laboured in various Circuits, principally in South Wales, until 1846. He then became a Supernumerary, but continued to preach and attend to pastoral duties until a short time before his death. In the earlier part of his ministry he suffered much from bodily affliction, and during his course he was no stranger to domestic grief. He was a man of frank and genial disposition, artless simplicity, strict honour, and thorough integrity; full of warm and generous impulses, but with a leaning rather to the extreme of good nature than of prudence. Gifted with a good and powerful voice, a retentive memory, and an active imagination, he was, in his prime, a very efficient and acceptable Preacher. His sermons, ever fraught with the truth "as it is in Jesus," and delivered with much animation and force, though somewhat lacking in method, were useful and edifying. He was mighty in prayer. While loyal and devoted to the doctrines and discipline of his own community, he was large-hearted and catholic in his sympathies. He was beloved by Ministers of other denominations, and frequently occupied their pulpits. On the occasion of his death the Incumbent of the parish preached a funeral sermon in the church of Rhos-y-medre. He died at Cefn-Mawr, on the 13th of August, 1864, in the eighty-first year of his age, and the fifty-ninth of his ministry. His end was eminently triumphant.

(2.) William Batten; a native of Denbigh, who was one of the first fruits of Wesleyan Methodism in North Wales, and there entered on the labours of an Itinerant Minister, in 1804. After thirty-nine years of faithful toil, he became a Supernumerary in the year 1843. As a Christian Minister, his course was one of great usefulness. He was for several years Chairman of the North Wales District, discharging the duties of his office with credit to himself, and satisfaction to his brethren. For twenty-two years he bore the infirmities of age with exemplary patience. He possessed great shrewdness and sagacity, was of a cheerful disposition, enjoyed a deep acquaintance with spiritual and experimental religion, and closed a life of undoubted piety at peace with God, and honoured by all who knew him. He died at Llansantffraid, on the 1st of September, 1864, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, and sixty-first of his ministry saying, in his native tongue, "I shall be satisfied, when I awake with Thy likeness."

(3.) Charles Lawton; who was born in Staffordshire, in 1825. His mother was a pious member of our Society, and to her instructions, example, and prayers, he was deeply indebted. When only eleven years of age, he joined the Methodist Society in Salford; and a few months afterwards, in a prayer-meeting at Irwell-street Chapel, he obtained the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins. He became a Local Preacher in 1848, and was admitted on trial for the ministry in 1852. In his Circuits he usually met a class, and also diligently sought the spiritual benefit of the children and youth of his charge. His labours were often successful in the awakening of sinners, as well as in the edifying of the body of Christ. He was a sincere Christian, and was possessed of superior natural talents, which he had diligently cultivated. He clearly understood, and ably maintained, the doctrines of Wesleyan Methodism. Towards the close of his ministry, his mind was drawn to such subjects of discourse as death, eternity, and meetness for heaven. During his illness he said, "My thoughts are continually going out after God," and often repeated, "Bless the Lord;"—"Praise the Lord." On September 9th, 1864, with a countenance radiant with joy, he left the church below to join the church above; his last words being, "Glory! victory for ever!"

(4.) William Powell (b); who was born at Harrow-on-the-Hill, January 10th, 1817. He was the son of pious Methodist parents, and when sixteen years of age was converted to God, and joined the Society in his native place. Of an ardent temperament, he quickly found a sphere of usefulness in the Sabbath-school, and in other departments of religious service. He was called by the Conference of 1842 into our ministry, in which he laboured with fidelity and success, and almost without interruption, to the period of his death. He was "in labours more abundant;" for, not confining himself to the routine of Circuit duties, he often went out into the highways and streets "to call sinners to repentance," and did so with blessed results. As a Preacher, his style was descriptive, and his delivery fervid. In his sermons he embodied the great doctrines and duties of Christianity, applied them faithfully and earnestly to the hearts and consciences of his hearers, and by the Divine blessing was often successful in winning souls to Christ. As a Pastor, he was diligent and affectionate; a firm lover of order, though judicious and kind. He had scarcely recovered from a fever when he was appointed by the last Conference to Ilkestone, where, it was hoped, he would speedily re-establish his health; but the Head of the Church saw that the fitting time had come for His servant's removal to his eternal reward. He was able to take his full work on Sunday, September 18th, 1864; but from that time, without suffering acute pain, he began to sink under extreme languor and debility, which baffled the efforts of medical skill, and the attentions of domestic solicitude. On the twenty-eighth of the same month, after some hours of unconsciousness, his spirit calmly passed to the paradise of God. He died in the forty-eighth year of his age, and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(5.) Owen Evans; who was born at Penmon, in Anglesey. He was early converted to God, and soon felt it his duty to call sinners to repentance. He laboured for some time as a Local Preacher, and in 1853 was called to give himself fully to the work of the ministry. He was of a meek and affectionate disposition, and much beloved by his brethren. As a Preacher he was plain, practical, and evangelical; and he was remarkable for his attention to pastoral duties. He endured his last illness, which, though short, was painful, with much patience. Some of his last words were, "It is all well;"—"I have a desire to depart and to be with Christ." He died at Llanrwst, October 19th, 1864, in the thirty-ninth year of his age, and the twelfth of his ministry.

(6.) Thomas Armett; a native of Staffordshire, who was born December 29th, 1787, and entered the Wesleyan ministry in 1813. His first appointment was to the Epworth Circuit, where he laboured with considerable success. In his various Circuits he was happy and useful, and much beloved by the people to whom he preached the word of life. In the year 1844, he was compelled, by infirmity, to become a Supernumerary; but, in comparative retirement, he was willing to do what he could to promote the cause of God. When visited by the Ministers of the Circuit, he was found invariably in a resigned and happy state of mind. A short time before his death he said to the Superintendent, "I am on the Rock;"—"None but Christ." He was firmly attached to the doctrines and the discipline of Methodism, and cherished much affection for its Ministers. After slowly sinking for some time, he peacefully slept in death, trusting in his Saviour, October 22d, 1864, in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

(7.) Lancelot Railton; who was born June 26th, 1812, and converted to God when about eighteen years of age. He was called to the ministry in 1838, and laboured for nine years in the West Indies with unremitting diligence. Failure of health necessitated his return to his native land, where he soon regained strength sufficient to enable him to prosecute, with energy and success, his much-loved work of winning souls to Christ. He was highly esteemed in the various Circuits to which he was appointed. His spirit was humble and devotional, his views of doctrinal truth clear and comprehensive, his preaching faithful and affectionate, and his discharge of pastoral duties conscientious and exemplary. His death—caused by fever, of which his beloved partner also died a few hours after him—was eminently peaceful. One of his last expressions was, "I am going to sing the new song!" He departed this life at Peel, on November 9th, 1864, in the fifty-third year of his age, and the twenty-seventh of his ministry.

(8.) Thomas Hickson; who was convinced of sin, and found peace with God, in his childhood, though it was not until his fifteenth year that he became a member of Society. His religious profession was uniform and consistent to the day of his death. After spending his youth in devotion and works of piety, he went, in early manhood, accompanied by his brother, the late Rev. James Hickson, to Newfoundland. In that island, and on the neighbouring continent, for ten years he cheerfully laboured for his Master, enduring privations and hardships such as are not often suffered by Christian Missionaries, even in the inhospitable parts of Labrador and Newfoundland. During his labours in this region, the seeds of a disease, from which he suffered much for many years, were sown in his constitution. On his return to England he was appointed to a Circuit in 1825, and continued to labour acceptably and usefully for twenty-nine years. When increased affliction and infirmity caused him to withdraw from the itinerant work, he settled at Northampton. In his retirement he was zealous, as far as health permitted, in varied labours of love. His earnestness in preaching, and other ministerial duties, was joined with a meek and tender spirit. This servant of God was suddenly removed on November 15th, 1864, aged seventy-seven years. "He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith."

(9.) Joseph Entwisle, son of the Rev. Joseph Entwisle; born at Wakefield, in March, 1798. At the early age of ten years, when a scholar at Kingswood, he became a subject of saving grace. During his youth he maintained his piety, and was intent on mental improvement. At the age of twenty-five, after a severe struggle, he yielded to the call of God, and gave himself to the work of the Christian ministry. His preaching was richly evangelical and practical. His sermons indicated careful preparation and deep thought, as well as a profound sympathy with Christian truth. He conscientiously attended to pastoral duties; and his amiable and affectionate disposition, combined with his earnest piety, made him both a welcome and a profitable visiter to the families, and to the sick chambers, of the people of his charge. In the care of his Circuits he was orderly and exact, attending to all the details of his work, no department escaping his oversight. In meetings for the transaction of business, his judgment, firmness, and kindness were equally conspicuous. He was pre-eminently a man of peace, and by his meekness of wisdom and Christian moderation, rendered great service to the cause of Christ in times of severe trial. He lived in habitual communion with God, being "an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." He was faithful in friendship, wise in counsel, much beloved by his colleagues, and genial in social life. In the bosom of his own family, he was tender, affectionate, cheerful. His death took place while he was conducting public worship. He had just given out the lines,

> "He plants his footsteps in the sea,
> And rides upon the storm;"

when, during the singing of the latter line, he sank in the pulpit, and after breathing a few times, peacefully passed to his eternal rest, on December 8th, 1864, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the forty-second of his ministry.

(10.) Thomas Collins; a very holy and useful man, who was born near Solihull, in Warwickshire, April 18th, 1810. When about eight years old it is believed he was truly converted under the ministry of the Rev. Gideon Ouseley. He afterwards suffered spiritual loss; but at the age of sixteen he consecrated himself to the Lord anew, and from that time "declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left." Having become a prayer-leader, and being filled with an ardent desire to preach the Gospel, he commenced at Stratford-on-Avon those pulpit ministrations which were so eminently owned by the Head of the Church. It was soon evident that he possessed a mind of great force and independence. A somewhat severe critic said of him: "In manifest power to comprehend a subject, to state it in all its bearings, and to adorn it with great felicity of diction and beauty of imagery, his early pulpit efforts excelled those of any self-educated man I ever heard." But whatever were his mental qualifications, the secret of his power throughout life was prayer. In his last illness he referred particularly to a period, spent in his second Circuit, as a time when he "learned to take hold on God." In his journal he once wrote: "I have seen sinners converted every day for some time. Sinners of all grades have been saved. I have only to abide with God in the closet, receive Him, and then go among the people, and break the alabaster box: they know the odour, and love it." He was a man of great self-denial, and his liberality often made glad the hearts of the poor. His latter days were in harmony with a life so devoted. He peacefully breathed his last, in his daughter's arms, December 27th, 1864.

(11.) William Dixon; who was born of Methodist parents, at Skelton, Yorkshire, October, 1781. The Christian character and deportment of a revered grandfather, a member of Society in the days of Mr. Wesley, made a deep and lasting impression on his mind. His conscience was awakened early in life, and after passing many days and nights in great mental anguish, he at length obtained a knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins. In the fifteenth year of his age, he became a member of Society, and immediately began to work in the vineyard of his Master. He gave "attendance to reading," especially studying the works of Wesley and Fletcher, and became convinced that it was his duty "to call sinners to repentance." At the early age of eighteen years he began to preach, and having been proposed as a candidate for our ministry by the late Rev. Miles Martindale, he was appointed to the Belper Circuit in the year 1806. His ministry was distinguished by "sound speech" that could not "be condemned." His character was irreproachable, and he walked worthy of his vocation in all lowliness and meekness. Failing health rendered it necessary for him to retire as a Supernumerary in 1823; but, during his years of retirement, he opened his house for preaching, and with much success, laboured "in season" and "out of season." In 1834 he resumed the work of the itinerant ministry, and remained in it for thirteen years. He then settled in Bedford, where he spent the remainder of his life. He continued to preach to village congregations so long as his strength permitted, rendering valuable aid to the Ministers resident in Bedford, and setting a pattern to others in his punctual attendance upon the public and social means of grace. His last illness was short, but he was ready to die, and was kept in perfect peace. When questioned on the state of his mind in the prospect of eternity, he replied, "All is right:" "Christ is the Rock of my salvation." Again, on being asked if he had any doubt or fear, he emphatically answered, "No; it would be dishonouring Christ to doubt His faithfulness, after serving Him for more than seventy years." A day or two before his death, a near relative reminded him that the journey of life was nearly ended; to which he answered, "I am going home." Just before he expired he faintly uttered the words, "Sleeping in Jesus;" and prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." He departed this life on January 8th, 1865, in the eighty-fourth year of his age, and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(12.) George Ellidge; who was born in 1798, and was converted in his youth. He entered upon the work of the ministry in 1822; and, for the period of forty-two years, occupied various Circuits, both at home and abroad. Though of humble gifts, he was exceedingly laborious and useful. In his earlier years his ministry in Newfoundland was greatly blessed, and the fruit of his labours there remains to this day. At the Conference of 1864 he became a Supernumerary; but, to the close of life, cheerfully and diligently laboured in the vineyard of his Lord. The day on which he was prostrated by paralysis he spent, for the most part, in visiting from house to house. His illness was of short duration. Although unable to speak, he gave assurance by a sign, that Christ was precious to him. He quietly fell asleep at New Buckenham, on the 25th of January, 1865.

(13.) William Robson; who was born at Helmsley. He was convinced of sin under the ministry of the Rev. Samuel Gates, and soon after became a member of Society. Having obtained peace with God, he felt constrained to consecrate himself to the service of his Lord and Master. Eventually he entered upon the work of the ministry, in 1821, and for a period of thirty-four years, discharged it with diligence, fidelity, and prudence. He gave "attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine." His mind was well stored with general knowledge, and his theological attainments were considerable. As a Preacher, he was plain, earnest, practical, and thoroughly evangelical; giving prominence to those leading and vital doctrines of the Gospel which peculiarly distinguished the original Methodist Preachers. As a Pastor, he was faithful, kind, and laborious; and generally succeeded in his efforts to promote the peace and prosperity of the Societies which were committed to his charge. He retired from the full work of a Circuit in 1855, and from that period to the time of his death, resided in York, where he found many opportunities for usefulness suited to his strength. An accident, which occurred to him while in the Snaith Circuit, entailed upon him years of feebleness and suffering, and probably shortened his days of active service. Yet he cheerfully acquiesced in the will of God, and was a happy witness that "perfect love casteth out fear." The night before his death, he exclaimed, "Nothing shall separate me from the love of Christ." Shortly before he passed away, he looked up steadfastly, and whispered, "They are come! They are come!" He exchanged mortality for life, February 5th, 1865, in the seventy-first year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(14.) George Greenwood; who was born at Husthwaite, in the Easingwold Circuit, in the year 1809. Under the Wesleyan-Methodist ministry in York, he was brought to feel his lost state as a sinner. After much earnest prayer, he was enabled to rest upon the atonement, and found peace and joy through believing. He was appointed to Macclesfield in the year 1837, and laboured with diligence for twenty-seven years in many important Circuits. As a Preacher he gave prominence to the great doctrines of the Gospel, and combined fervour and fidelity with love to souls. The success of his ministry may be traced in the Circuits where he laboured, in some cases with remarkable distinctness. By judicious counsel and active labour he steadily promoted the cause of Christ, showing the deepest interest in everything relating to Methodism. He was faithful in the maintenance of our discipline in seasons of trial, while by his frankness, uprightness, and uniform kindness, he won the confidence of all. After the Conference of 1864 he entered on his work in the Ripon Circuit with his characteristic zeal and energy, but was laid aside within three months. In his affliction his mind was stayed on God, and at times was exceedingly joyous and happy. During a visit paid to him, the Rev. Joseph Hargreaves inquired, "Do you find Christ precious to you?" His instant reply was, "Yes, very precious! I am on the Rock! and all go to heaven who are on the Rock!" On more than one occasion he was heard to say, quietly yet earnestly, "Glory! glory! glory!" He died in great peace, February 15th, 1865, in the fifty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-eighth of his ministry.

(15.) William Lockwood Thornton, A.M., President of the Conference; who was born in Huddersfield, January 27th, 1811, and died at Hackney, Sunday, March 5th, 1865. This eminent Minister descended from godly parents, who not only brought him up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," but furnished him with the means of a sound and liberal education. Under well-directed culture, his powers soon ripened into a maturity and vigour which foretokened future distinction and usefulness. In comparative youth, he was "born again," and gave himself "first unto the Lord," and unto the church of his fathers, "by the will of God." Soon after his conversion, he felt moved by the Holy Ghost to preach the Gospel. At the Conference of 1830, he was accepted as a probationer; and, for nearly thirty-five years, he studied to show himself "approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." He possessed a clear and acute understanding, a discriminating and well-balanced judgment, a fertile and cultivated imagination, a tenacious and richly-stored memory. By a conscientious economy and habitual improvement of time, he acquired considerable stores of information in science, philosophy, and general literature ; and these, together with his correct and elegant classical and Biblical scholarship, were applied with singular ability and success to the elucidation and defence of God's Holy Word. His style, though florid in early life, was, of late, chaste, lucid, and graceful; and, not unfrequently, both in his sermons and addresses, he rose into strains of fervid and effective eloquence. His preaching was always replete with evangelical truth ; but, in advancing years, he held forth, with increasing firmness and fulness, the old doctrine of the atonement, which he felt to be the very substance and life of the Gospel. As a Christian Pastor, he was exemplarily devoted to his great work. By his addresses to the Society, his domiciliary visitation, his thoughtful solicitude for the young, and his diligence and punctuality as a Class-leader, he was, indeed, " an ensample to the flock." But the basis of his fixed and elevated character, was his habitual and unaffected godliness : this was felt in the family, in social intercourse, and in all the engagements of his public life. He " walked with God." This, too, was the secret of his memorable power in prayer. With what enlargement and importunity he sometimes led the devotions of the sanctuary ; with what facility he would appropriate, and with what copiousness pour forth, the inspired prayers of Prophets and Apostles, can never be forgotten by those who heard him. In the various important offices to which he was called, his rare and versatile abilities were very conspicuous. As Classical Tutor of the Theological Institution, he found a sphere congenial to his tastes and habits, and occupied it with an assiduity and affability which will long endear his memory to many grateful students. As Editor, he was a vigilant observer of the tendencies of current thought, ever ready to rebuke the follies of modern scepticism, firm in the maintenance of Protestant truth, but kind and catholic in spirit; and laboured to provide the Methodist Connexion with a pure, solid, and essentially religious literature, with a diligence and success which earned for him the repeated and recorded thanks of the Conference. In 1863, Mr. Thornton was appointed Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist-Episcopal Church in America, and President of the Canadian and Eastern-British American Conferences: a mission in the fulfilment of which he commended himself to the admiration and love of his brethren, on both sides of the Atlantic. Twelve months ago, he was almost unanimously elected President of the Conference. Few men have sustained the honours and discharged the duties of that position with greater fidelity, impartiality, and courtesy. The brief illness which preceded his unexpected death, though severe, was endured with entire and even cheerful resignation. On the evening before his decease, the seventh chapter of the Revelation was read, by his request, at family worship; after which he expatiated in prayer, with great freeness and unction, on the services and enjoyments of the sealed and glorified ones before the throne. Some of his last words were, "My mercies abound! my mercies abound!" When in mortal pain and faintness, he was asked, "Do you feel Christ Jesus very precious?" He answered emphatically, twice, "Yes." Almost without a struggle he exchanged the holy Sabbath of earth for the endless Sabbath of the skies.

(16.) John Lewis Richards; a native of Merionethshire, in North Wales. Early in life he was induced by a servant of his parents to attend our ministry, and was converted to God under its influence. He began to preach before he was eighteen years of age. At this period his father proposed to send him to the University of Oxford, intending to prepare him for the ministry of the Established Church. But he "chose rather to suffer" with the "sect" then "everywhere spoken against," and retained his connection with Methodism. From 1825 he laboured with fidelity and acceptance in various Circuits, until, in 1856, owing to his growing infirmities, he became a Supernumerary. He was a man of modest and gentle spirit; but possessing a strong understanding and an independent mind. His sermons were well studied and arranged; and his ministry was attractive, earnest, and effective.

In the fulfilment of his pastoral duties he was faithful and conscientious. His kind manner made him a welcome visiter to the sick chamber ; where he was found, on his Master's business, only two days previous to his decease. As a proof of the estimation in which he was held by his brethren, he was elected Secretary of the North-Wales District for twenty-two years in succession. Although his health had long been impaired, his death was sudden. A few days before his dissolution, he spoke with confidence of the bright hope he enjoyed of being for ever with the Lord. He died at Llansantffraid, on the 18th day of March, 1865, in the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(17.) William Rowlands, was a native of Lleyn, in Carnarvonshire, and brought up in connection with the Calvinistic-Methodist Society, of which his parents were members. When about sixteen years of age, through the perusal of polemical works published by some of our Welsh Ministers, his doctrinal views were changed, and he became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. He began to preach when he was eighteen years of age, and in 1829 entered our ministry. He was remarkable for his strict integrity and fervent zeal. His attainments, both in general and in religious knowledge, were extensive. For seven years he was the Editor of our Welsh publications, and evinced great ability in the prosecution of duties, which, added to the regular work of an extensive Circuit, were laborious. He earnestly and successfully defended both our doctrines and discipline. As a Preacher he possessed more than ordinary talents, was energetic in his manner, apt in his illustrations, and occasionally powerful and searching in his appeals. At the last Conference he became a Supernumerary, and went to reside at Oswestry, hoping to be useful to the Society and congregation there, but his infirmity so rapidly increased that he was soon compelled to relinquish all public labour. During his last illness his mind was kept in perfect peace. In the hour of dissolution he waved his hand as a sign of victory over the last enemy, and said, " O death, where is thy sting ? "

He died March 21st, 1865, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(18.) JOHN SMEDLEY; who was a native of Derby. His parents and grandparents were consistent members of the Methodist Society. In answer to their prayers, and by God's blessing on their teaching and example, he feared the Lord from his early childhood, and was restrained from outward sin. In his thirteenth year, the Lord showed him his need of a change of heart, and he sought and found mercy. He at once joined the Society, and gave himself to a diligent reading of the Holy Scriptures. Before he was seventeen years of age he was employed in the villages, preaching the word of life. An extensive revival of religion in the Belper Circuit was made a great blessing to him. More fully assured than before of his call to the ministry of the word, he offered himself to the Conference for the service of Christ in any part of the world. In the year 1816 he was appointed to the West Indies. His Missionary labours were owned of God. On his return to this country he still continued to "take heed to the ministry" which he had "received," and "to fulfil it." His preaching was faithful, earnest, and affectionate; and his care of the flock, especially the sick, diligent and sympathizing. He led the devotions of the sanctuary with fervour. He was a man of much reading, and refined taste, and by the frankness and friendliness of his spirit secured the confidence of his colleagues. At the Conference of 1855, Mr. Smedley became a Supernumerary, and fixed his residence at St. Ives, Cornwall; where he rendered willing and valuable service to the Church. The last three years of his life were years of deepening affliction. For more than twelve months his debility and depression, occasioned by complicated affliction, made him reluctant to speak of his religious state; but, in the near approach of death, he was graciously favoured with abounding joy. "My feet are in the river," he said; and pointing upward, he exclaimed, "There! there! O what hath Jesus bought for me!"—"Victory through the blood of the Lamb!"—"The precious blood cleanseth from all sin—all sin." Clasping his hands, he whispered,

"No more evil—good things to come, for ever;" "Jesus—glory;" and his voice was lost in death. He died on the 26th of April, 1865, in the seventy-first year of his age.

(19.) Thomas Newton; who was born in the year 1783. He was brought to a knowledge of the truth in 1797, and commenced his itinerancy in 1808. Robust in constitution, he was "in labours more abundant," especially in the earlier part of his ministry. His character was distinguished by uprightness and unswerving fidelity. His preaching, which was earnest, was not unfrequently attended with "the demonstration of the Spirit, and of power," and many were converted to God through his instrumentality. In pastoral duties he was most exemplary. In 1846, he retired, as a Supernumerary, to Mildenhall; where he spent the remainder of his days, acceptably and usefully, in "serving his generation according to the will of God." Towards the close of life his sufferings were severe; but in patience he possessed his soul, "rejoicing with joy unspeakable and full of glory." He passed to his reward on the 19th of May, 1865, in the eighty-second year of his age, and the fifty-seventh of his ministry.

(20.) John Robinson; who was born at Ribchester, November 8th, 1786. When sixteen years of age he attended the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapel at Preston, and under a sermon by the late venerable John Hickling was deeply convinced of sin, which led to his conversion to God, and union with His people. In 1813 he was admitted into the Wesleyan ministry, and continued with acceptance and efficiency in active service for thirty years, when he was compelled, by increasing infirmities, to become a Supernumerary. He fixed his residence in the Camelford Circuit, and continued for several years, according to his strength, to labour in the work which he loved. As a Preacher, he was earnest and practical; and in several Circuits very successful in winning souls. He paid special attention to the young, and took delight in feeding the lambs of Christ's flock. He was firm in the maintenance of the great principles of Methodism, under circumstances of severe trial and violent opposition. He was faithful and diligent as a "servant of Jesus Christ." During his last illness his confidence in God was strong and unshaken. Supported by that Gospel he had preached to others, and which brings "life and immortality to light," he often said, with great emphasis, "I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." He fell asleep in Jesus, on Monday, May 22d, 1865, in the seventy-eighth year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(21.) JOHN OSBORN, a native of Cornwall; who when about twelve years of age was deeply convinced of sin, and after about five weeks of earnest seeking, was enabled to rejoice in God his Saviour. His attachment to our Connexion was severely tested. In 1835 he was appointed to a Circuit, and he laboured faithfully until laid aside by affliction. His ministry was thoroughly evangelical, plain, practical, and useful. He was diligent as a Pastor, paying special attention to the sick, the aged, and the infirm. He was of a gentle disposition, and manifested a constant solicitude for the prosperity of the work of God. In his latter years he suffered much, but his faith remained unshaken. The night before his departure he quoted with feeling the words,—

"Meet, through consecrated pain,
To see the face Divine."

He intimated that, though he had not much joy, he had probably as much as he could bear, adding, "I cannot doubt; I have settled peace." He slept in Jesus on the 11th of June, 1865, in the fifty-fourth year of his age, and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(22.) AMOS LEAROYD; who was born in Bradford, in Yorkshire, in 1795. He was one of the earliest scholars in the first Wesleyan Sunday-school opened in his native town; and he there received impressions which, though they did not result in his immediate conversion, exerted a lasting influence upon his character and life. Under the faithful instructions of the late Rev. Joseph Fowler, then a teacher in the same school, he was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. In 1822 he entered the Methodist ministry, and for forty-three years maintained the character of an earnest, humble, and devoted servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. He was a diligent student of the Holy Scriptures; for thirty-eight years he read the Bible through every year, according to a plan arranged by himself. Thus furnished out of the Divine treasury, he was able constantly to bring before his hearers "things new and old." The characteristics of his ministry were great plainness of speech, earnestness of delivery, and powerful appeal. His sermons, though simple and unpretending, were rich in evangelical truth, and were delivered with an evident concern for the souls of his hearers. At the last Conference, he was appointed a second time, after the lapse of forty years, to the Oldham Circuit. He laboured with great acceptance until the May District-Meeting, when he was seized with a severe illness. When told that his end was approaching, he received the information with the utmost composure. He said, "If God were to permit me to choose, I would say, 'Lord, choose for me.'" On one occasion he said, with emphasis, "'I call the world's Redeemer mine;' yes, mine." Early in the morning of the Sabbath on which he died, after having given his dying advice to those around him, he said, "I have longed to labour for poor sinners in Oldham." He then prayed, again and again, "Lord, save them by hundreds; Lord, save them by thousands! I could bleed for poor sinners." When one said to him, "You are in the valley," his face brightened as he replied, "Yes, but the Saviour is with me. It is better to look at the bright resurrection than to the dark grave." When asked by another, "Can you pray now?" He responded, "O, no, it is all praise now; I have done with prayer; prayer is lost in praise." In this happy frame of mind he passed away, in the evening of Sunday, June 25th, 1865, on the dawn of which he had so ardently prayed that "thousands might be saved."

(23.) Isaac Woodcock; who was born at Holbeck, near Leeds, in 1799. He was descended from parents who "feared the Lord greatly." His early training, by the Divine blessing, imposed upon him a salutary restraint, and under the ministry of the late Rev. David Stoner, he at length took upon himself vows of consecration to the service of God. His ardour and zeal were soon apparent. He became deeply impressed that it was his duty to preach to others the salvation which he had himself received. After much searching of heart, he entered upon this work in a spirit of self-distrust, and in entire dependence upon God. His ministry was characterized by a careful analysis of scriptural truth, cogent reasoning, and by faithful and searching appeals. His conduct was uniformly circumspect and devout, and his piety deep and sincere. His private devotional exercises were regular and frequent. To Methodism, his attachment was strong and unabating; and his efforts to serve its best interests were conscientious and untiring. In Him the church has lost "a faithful and wise steward." His death was in harmony with his devoted life. When two hours before his decease, the question was put to him, "Is Jesus precious now?" His emphatic answer was, "He is: I am on the Rock, on the Rock." "You have hold of God by faith, and your hopes are bright," said one to him. "Yes," was his reply; "O, yes!" Some of his last words, accompanied by the triumphant waving of his hands, were, "I am going,—I am going,—glory! glory!" This devoted servant of Christ died at Snaith, July 10th, 1865, in the sixty-sixth year of his age.

(24.) Charles Rawlings; who was born of Methodist parents, in Cheltenham, on the 24th of May, 1813. From a child he knew the Holy Scriptures, and was brought up under the influence of religious associations; but a considerable part of his youth was spent in the pursuit of sinful pleasure. When a little more than nineteen years of age, he removed to the city of Oxford, where, under the preaching of his uncle, the late Rev. J. H. Adams, and his colleague, he was awakened to a sense of his guilt and danger. For some weeks he sought the Lord with deep and overwhelming sorrow, until at length the "Day-spring from on high" visited him. Having himself tasted the "good word of God," he was anxious that all should partake the Gospel "feast," and, shortly after his conversion, went "out into the highways and hedges to compel" others "to come in." At the Conference of 1836, he was accepted as a candidate for our ministry. His piety was sincere and earnest. In the prayer-meeting and the lovefeast he was always at home, and in the pulpit he had great power. In his ministry he sought to promote the life and purity of the Church; but the chief aim of his preaching was the conversion of sinners. In all his Circuits he had "fruit" of this kind, and in some of them it was abundant. He was more successful in aggression on the domain of evil than as a ruler in the Lord's house. Had he acted less from impulse, his usefulness would, probably, have been still greater than it was. Yet many will be his "joy" and "crown of rejoicing," in "the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming." His end was very sudden, but peaceful. The greater part of the day of his death was spent in his study. He was preparing to preach on the following Sabbath evening from the words, "Behold, I come as a thief." About half-past five o'clock he sat down with his family to tea. Feeling severe pain, and finding it increase rapidly, he said, with emotion, to his wife and children, "We do not know what may happen, but let me say for your satisfaction, 'I know in whom I have believed.'" Having reached his bedroom, he said with tears, "I am a sinner, but if I die, I shall go to heaven." A few moments afterwards he sank down in his chair, and whispered, "I am going," and the mortal strife was ended. He passed away to his "rest" on Friday, July 14th, 1865, in the fifty-third year of his age, and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

(25.) Benjamin Brook Hudson; who was born February 14th, 1784, at Holmfirth, and died at Hull, July 23d, 1865. When twenty years of age, at a religious service to which he and his sinful companions had gone in order to scoff, he was deeply convinced of sin. Under the ministry of the late Revs. Thomas Wood, and William Hill, he was made a "partaker of Christ," and brought into fellowship with His church. After seeking to be useful in various other ways, he delivered his first sermon at Shipley, in the year 1808. Two years later, he was admitted on trial for the Methodist ministry, and appointed to the Ayr Circuit. He laboured with much faithfulness and acceptance, in England and Scotland, for forty-one years. In 1851 he was compelled, by the failure of his strength, to retire from active service. So long as his health permitted, he continued to preach and to conduct band and class meetings. His last days were peaceful. During a gradual decay, he felt comforted and supported by the truths which he had so long preached to others. "My hope," said he, "is built solely and entirely on the 'Rock of Ages.'

> 'This all my hope, and all my plea,
> For me the Saviour died.'"

(26.) Robert Newstead; who was born in 1789, at Howton St. Peter's, in the county of Norfolk. He was converted to God when eighteen years of age, and entered the ministry in 1815. In 1816 he was appointed as a Missionary to the East. He laboured in Ceylon for nine years, with much success among the English and the Ceylon or Indo-Portuguese, into whose language he translated, while abroad, the Book of Genesis, the Psalms, and the New Testament, and, after his return to England, the whole of the Book of Common Prayer. The Portuguese Hymn-Book, now in use in Ceylon, was also composed or compiled by him. He was the honoured instrument of introducing the knowledge of Christianity among the natives of the kingdom of Kandy. After an absence of forty years from the island of Ceylon, he is still remembered, with much affection and respect, as a holy man and a laborious Missionary. In 1833 he was appointed to the English Mission in Paris, where he remained four years, rejoicing in his happy toil. The remainder of his ministerial life was spent in his own land. In 1861, he became a Supernumerary. In the discharge of his duties as a Preacher and Pastor he was ready for every call, and with self-sacrificing devotion proved himself a genuine follower of Christ. In the work of pastoral visitation he excelled, not confining his attention to the members of the Society and congregations under his proper care, but with singular diligence and perseverance finding out the abodes of casual hearers, and inviting them to become regular in their attendance at public worship. By this method he enlarged his acquaintance with the people; he became known and respected for his sincerity and zeal far beyond the immediate circle of Methodism, increased his congregations, and in many cases, it is believed, was honoured with great usefulness. His courtesy of manner, his general intelligence, and his unaffected piety, commanded the respect of all who knew him. His well-stored memory, his ready utterance, and his benevolent heart, prepared him for the frequent demand for his services on behalf of various religious and benevolent objects; while the liberality of his givings, in public and in private, knew no bounds except the bounds of his ability. He was active and laborious in the circulation of religious tracts, of which he wrote not a few. It will long be remembered of him that he laboured earnestly and perseveringly for the right observance of the Christian Sabbath, and to avert the profanation, whether by legal enactment or by popular error, of that holy day. His zeal for the diffusion of the word of God, in all languages spoken upon earth, was not exhausted by his labours as a translator. He delighted to assist the operations of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and his best services were always at the command of the friends of Foreign Missions. It was observed by those about him that his zeal retained its full strength though his body was enfeebled by advancing age. In his last illness he found consolation in reading the word of God, and in uniting in the prayers of those who came to visit him. For several days before he died he spoke but little. His words expressed his assurance of the love of God, and his perfect confidence in the Atonement of Christ. He died in great peace, July 28th, 1865, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

2. In our Foreign Missions, eight; viz.,—

(1.) John Raynol Parys; who was born at Galle, August 15th, 1808. He was of French descent, and brought up a Romanist. He was led to seek the salvation of his soul through the instrumentality of J. N. Mooyaart, Esq., and the late Rev. W. A. Lalmon. He gave up a lucrative profession to become a catechist of the Wesleyan Mission, and God gave him seals to his ministry in the conversion of all his father's family to Protestant Christianity. When in health, his sermons, both in Singhalese and Portuguese, were specimens of great excellence and power, and his ministry was both acceptable and effective. At the District Meeting of last year he was appointed to Galle, but he did not labour long in his new sphere. He had been a sufferer for years, and the death of his excellent wife in the preceding year accelerated his own decease. By all his brethren he was respected and loved, and that God whom he had served, graciously supported His servant to the end. He had no fear of death; his last hours were peaceful and happy in a high degree. He was called to his rest on the 29th of March, 1864, in the thirty-first year of active service for his Master.

(2.) John Allen Manton,* who was by birth a member of a Nonconformist family, and lineally descended from that "man of renown," Dr. Thomas Manton. He was converted in early life through the instrumentality of Methodist preaching. In the year 1830 he was accepted by the English Conference, and sent forth to engage in pioneer work in Australia. After a short residence in Parramatta, he was appointed to labour as Chaplain, first, at the penal settlement of Macquarie Harbour, and subsequently at that of Port Arthur. In the discharge of his duties he was frequently exposed to danger, and was subject to many privations; but his self-denying labours were owned of God, and the Colonial Government repeatedly recognised the service he had rendered in bringing about the reformation of several of those unfortunate outcasts over whom he was the sole religious instructer. Nor was he less useful when engaged in regular Circuit-work. In Launceston, Hobart-Town, and elsewhere, he was the honoured instrument of leading many to the Saviour. As a Preacher his style was perspicuous, and his manner affectionate, whilst the prominent subject of his discourses was the grace and work of Christ. Though somewhat reserved before strangers, and generally cautious and deliberate in his movements, those favoured with his acquaintance ever found him a man of fine feeling, courteous to all, a judicious adviser, and a warm and fast friend. He enjoyed the confidence of his brethren, who thankfully hailed his appointment as President of the Third Australasian Wesleyan Conference. To the young people in his respective Circuits he was warmly attached: and desirous of promoting the advancement of the Methodist youth of Australia, he earnestly and perseveringly sought to provide for them facilities for obtaining a superior education. He was the first Governor of Horton College, Tasmania, and one of the chief instruments in securing the efficiency of that establishment. Subsequently he originated a similar institution in New South Wales, of which he was appointed the first President. These collegiate institutions may be taken as proofs of his zeal, and they remain monuments of his well-deserved success. Towards the close of the year 1863, failing health compelled him to desist from preaching; but he kept at his post at the College, doing his work, though often doing it in pain. He suffered greatly from a complication of diseases, and his journey "through the valley of the shadow of death" was a long one; but he did not lack support, for the Lord was with him. He had not ecstasy, but he had peace, and a "good hope through grace," and in strong confidence could say with his dying breath, "Saved at last!" He died September 9th, 1864, in the fifty-eighth year of his age, and the thirty-fifth of his ministry.

(3.) Nathaniel Turner was born in Cheshire, in 1793. At nine years of age, he found himself an orphan. When eighteen years old, he was converted to God. He became "fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." After exercising his gifts as a Local Preacher for some time, he was accepted by the British Conference in 1819. He was employed as a Home Missionary with great success, until, with Mrs. Turner, he embarked for New-Zealand in 1822. In Tasmania and New South Wales he was detained some months, and was very useful in these colonies. During the next year he planted the first Wesleyan-Missionary Station at Wesley-Dale in New-Zealand. Here, "in perils among the heathen," he toiled assiduously in the manifold duties of Missionary life. Little more than three years had passed, when, in a marauding expedition, the Maories plundered his property, exhumed the dead body of his child for the sake of the shroud, and burnt the Mission-premises to the ground. Mr. and Mrs. Turner, with their household, narrowly escaped with their lives during the night to the Keri-Keri, and after a while took ship for Sydney. Mr. Turner proceeded to the Friendly Islands, and entered, with his accustomed energy and zeal, on that Mission. His health failing, he returned to New South Wales in 1831; and after spending a few months at Parramatta he went to Hobart-Town, where his ministry was very fruitful. In 1836, he resumed his labours in New-Zealand, in the Hokianga. Here, for three years, he was "in labours more abundant" among the Maories and the few scattered settlers. He afterwards had charge successively of the Hobart-Town, Launceston, Sydney, and Parramatta Circuits. The effect of his excessive zeal appeared in 1850, in the utter prostration of his health, which required him to become a Supernumerary Minister. For some time he resided at Paddington, whence he removed to Brisbane, where he terminated his valued labours and holy life on December 5th, 1864. Mr. Turner was a faithful friend, an affectionate Pastor, and a successful Preacher. A true Methodist, he was "a lover of all good men," but ardently attached to his own brethren and people. Few Ministers have preached the Gospel over a more extensive field. In New South Wales, Queensland, Tasmania, New-Zealand, the Friendly Islands, and in regions beyond, the fruits of his ministry remain, and his "name is like ointment poured forth." "For he was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith, and much people were added unto the Lord." In the social and domestic relations he was greatly beloved. Held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, he is embalmed in the affections of a large and godly family to the second generation. "The memory of the just is blessed." His last illness was painful, but not long. He calmly anticipated and spoke of his decease. All was ready. The word "victory" was on his lips as he entered on his reward. Thus died Nathaniel Turner, who had "turned many to righteousness."

(4.) Samuel Normington; a young Minister of devoted piety and great promise. Having enjoyed the advantages of the Theological Institution for three years, he laboured one year in England, and then proceeded to India, where he occupied the important position of Minister to the English congregation in Bangalore. In this capacity he was highly esteemed and very useful. But his heart was moved to compassion and sympathy by the condition of the surrounding heathen, and he added to his labours by applying himself to the study of the Canarese language. It was "well that it was in his heart" thus to devote himself to the cause of Christ among the heathen; but it pleased the great Master to call him early to his reward. His last illness was brief and severe, but he was enabled to bear a blessed and comforting testimony to the sufficiency of Divine grace even in death. Some of his last words were, "I am in Christ, on Christ, going to Christ." He died December 12th, 1864, in the twenty-seventh year of his age.

(5.) William Fletcher Turtle, aged forty-four years; who was a native of the Bahamas, and a son of one of our highly-valued and greatly-beloved Missionaries to those islands. Losing his father when young, and his mother at no distant period afterwards, he was placed in circumstances to need the guidance of Him who had promised to be "the father of the fatherless." Till eighteen years of age he sought it not; but, allured by the world, lived "without God, and without hope." At length, awakened by the death of an intimate friend, he yielded to the Spirit's influence, and turned from the ways of the "disobedient to the wisdom of the just." The mantle of his departed father fell upon him; and he earnestly sought to "fulfil the ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus, and to testify of the grace of God." This, in all godly jealousy, in all tenderness of spirit and gentleness of manner, with tears, entreaties, and prayers, "in season" and "out of season," he faithfully did for nineteen years. Eminent for his gift in prayer, and for his meekness and love; he was esteemed very highly by his brethren. Wholly resting on the unfailing mercy of God, he was kept in peace during his last affliction, and, on February 3d, 1865, died, as he had lived, a man of God.

(6.) James Cuthbert, a promising young Missionary, who embarked for West Africa in November last, and died at Lagos, on his way to Abbeokuta, February 22d, 1865. His spirit was excellent; and his end was full of peace, and holy hope, as the words which were often on his lips testify:—

"My Father's house on high!
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!"

(7.) Cornelius Wijesingha; who was the first pure native enrolled among Methodist Preachers in the Eastern mission, and one of the earliest converts in Ceylon. He was brought to a knowledge of the truth by a pupil of the late Rev. W. M. Harvard, and soon afterwards was appointed Master to the English Mission-School in Colombo. In the school he was useful, and led several of his scholars to a saving knowledge of the Redeemer. In 1819 he was received as an Assistant-Missionary, and though often persecuted, he continued his work without fear, fully trusting in God. While stationed in Rillegalle he suffered great loss in his family through jungle fever, and from the effects of that disease he himself never fully recovered. His entire course in the ministry was free from blame, and his life was an example of Christian gentleness and patience. In every place where he was stationed he won the affections of his flock, and even heathens acknowledged the power of his consistent life. His love for Methodism, his attachment to his fellow-labourers, and his desire to be useful, never abated. At the beginning of the year 1864, he retired as a Supernumerary. In the Jubilee Meeting at Colombo, on the 29th of June, he appeared for the last time in public, and took part in that assembly which witnessed the close of the fiftieth year of our Mission in Ceylon. He died the next day. His last petition was presented to the throne of grace on the morning of the Quarterly Meeting; and he retired from the family altar to the chamber of death. After forty-six years of active toil for his Master, and seventy-one of life on earth, he joined the "assembly and church of the first-born" above.

(8.) George Millsom; who died at Mount-Fletcher, Jamaica, on the 5th of July, 1865. The first four years of his useful ministry were passed in Circuits at home In 1843 he proceeded to Jamaica, where, with a few months' interval, during which he paid a visit to his native land, he continued to render faithful service up to the time of his death. Able, diligent, and successful, he was highly esteemed by his fellow-labourers, and by the people of his charge. Many were the seals of his ministry in the several stations which he occupied in the Jamaica Mission, where his loss is deeply deplored and his place will not be easily supplied. Cut off in the twenty-sixth year of his ministry, he was enabled to triumph in death, assured that he was passing from the toils of earth to enter into the joy of his Lord.

Q. V. Are there any objections to any of our Ministers, or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VI. What persons, who were in full connexion with the Conference, have now ceased to be recognised as Ministers among us?

A. 1. John Jones (b).

2. Samuel T. Greathead, Charles W. de Hoedt, and François Eldin, who have retired from our work.

Q. VII. How are our Ministers, and Preachers on Trial, STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.,—

[N.B. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 602, is the head of a Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach, and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.]

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the affairs of the Book-Room?

A. 1. The London Book-Committee shall consist of The President of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents residing in London, the Book-Steward, the Editor, the Secretary of the Book-Committee, the Missionary Secretaries, the Principal of the Normal Training Institution, the Governor and the Theological Tutor of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the Secretary for Home Missions, the Superintendents of the London Circuits, and six additional members chosen from Ministers in London; namely, the Rev. Messrs. John Baker, Frederick W. Briggs, William M. Bunting, Henry L. Church, John M'Kenny, and Luke H. Wiseman.

The Rev. George T. Perks is appointed Secretary of this Committee for the ensuing year. Letters should be addressed to him at No. 17, Alwyne-road, Canonbury, London, N.

2. The Methodist Tract-Committee shall consist of a Committee of Ministers, to be appointed by the London Book-Committee.—The Rev. John Baker is appointed Secretary. Communications for this department should be addressed to him at The Wesleyan Chapel-House, St. George's East, London, E.

3. That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Dr. Jobson, for his faithful, diligent, and efficient management of the affairs of the Book-Room during the past year.

4. That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Benjamin Frankland, B.A., for the faithful and able manner in which he has performed his Editorial duties during the past year.

5. That the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. John Kirk (b), Secretary of the London Book-Committee; and to the Rev. John Baker, Secretary of the Methodist Tract-Committee, for their important and valuable services in their respective offices.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference cordially adopts the Resolutions of the Committee of Review on Chapel Affairs, held in Birmingham, on Monday, July 24th, 1865; and directs that those Resolutions, and an Abstract of the Report then read, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. III.)

In particular,—

(1.) The Conference, considering the small amount now at the disposal of the Chapel Committee for loans in aid of New Erections, and the great advantages to the Connexion which would arise from a permanent augmentation of that amount, resolves that the Rule respecting the disposal of the annual income (Minutes of 1854, Vol. XII., page 530) be modified as follows:—For the present, if the necessities of the Connexion shall require it, and the Chapel Fund shall be sufficient for the purpose, a sum not exceeding £4,000 per annum may be appropriated out of the income arising from Annual Collections and Subscriptions, and from Donations and Legacies, to the aid of distressed and other Chapels, by annual or final grants; all applicants for such grants to raise such a proportion of the amount to be cancelled as shall be agreed upon with the Committee. With a view, however, to render some portion of the income available for the extension of Methodism, the Chapel Committee are authorised to appropriate in loans towards the erection of Chapels, such a portion of the said sum of £4,000 per annum as may remain at the close of each year, after meeting all reasonable applications for the relief of existing Chapel-debts by grants.

(2.) The Compendium of Regulations relating to Wesleyan-Methodist Trust Property having been revised by the Special Committee appointed last year, the Conference now directs that a copy, as revised, be sent to each Minister in full connexion in Great Britain, for his opinions and remarks, and be returned by him to the Secretaries of the Chapel Committee before February 1st, 1866; and that the Compendium be then further considered by the Chapel Committee, and submitted to the next Conference.

In the meantime, the Conference confides to the Chapel Committee a discretionary power in the relaxation of the existing Rules relating to Erections and Enlargements, in any special cases in which such relaxation may seem to them to be desirable.

(3.) The Conference again earnestly recommends the Chapel Erection-Fund to the support of the Connexion.

(4.) The Conference authorises the Chapel Committee to prepare, and procure the execution of, a Deed constituting a Trust for the conservation and investment of funds given or set apart for Chapel purposes, whether general or local.

(5.) The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent for the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

(6.) The Conference, considering it to be highly expedient that all applications which may be made to the Board of Charity Commissioners, in relation to Wesleyan Trust Property, should have the sanction of the President of the Conference, resolves as follows:—

"The Conference hereby empowers the President, for the time being, to affix his signature to any petition or application to the Charity Commissioners for the exercise of their powers, provided that each case be first certified and recommended to him by the Chapel Committee."

2. The Conference feels bound to renew the expression of its disapproval of the practice which prevails, greatly to the injury of the Chapel Fund, and to the inconvenience of many excellent friends, of making applications through the Connexion for pecuniary assistance to local Chapel and School efforts, when such applications have not been expressly sanctioned by the Conference; and trusts that such applications will not be made in future.

3. JOHN FERNLEY, ESQ., of Southport, and Samuel R. HEALEY, ESQ., of Liverpool, are requested to continue in office as Treasurers of the General Chapel-Fund.

4. The REV. JOHN BEDFORD, and the REV. WILLIAM EDWARDS (A), are appointed General Secretaries of the Wesleyan Chapel Committee.

5. The Committee for the next year shall consist of the President of the Conference; the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Treasurers of the Chapel-Fund, the Secretaries of the Chapel Committee, and the under-mentioned Ministers and Gentlemen:—

Rev. Thomas Aubrey,
—— Willson Brailsford,

Mr. Charles Simpson, Bowdon,
Mr. Samuel H. Smith, Sheffield,
Mr. Samuel Turnbull, Manchester,
Mr. Benjamin R. Vickers, Leeds,
Mr. Greaves Walker, London,
Mr. William Walker, Bolton.

6. The Committee of REVIEW ON CHAPEL AFFAIRS shall meet in Leeds, on the Monday preceding the next Conference; and, in addition to the Committee above-named, shall consist of the following persons; viz.,—

Rev. William Arthur,
—— John Bowers,
—— Henry H. Chettle,
—— James Grose,
—— John Hall,
—— S. Romilly Hall,
—— Joseph Hargreaves,
—— Thomas Jackson,
—— William Jessop,
—— Dr. Jobson,

—— Henry W. Williams,
—— Luke H. Wiseman;
Mr. E. M. Bainbridge, Newcastle-on-Tyne,
Mr. Thomas Branson, Sheffield,
Mr. J. S. Budgett, London,
Mr. John Burton, Leeds,
Mr. Thomas Crabtree, Shipley,
Mr. Henry Edmunds, Halifax,
Mr. Thomas Hazlehurst, Runcorn,
Mr. R. Haworth, Manchester,
Mr. F. Heeley, Birmingham,
Mr. W. B. Holdsworth, Leeds,
Mr. G. Knowles, Bolton,
Mr. R. Mackie, Wakefield,
Mr. J. H. Mason, Newbury,
Mr. S. Mease, North-Shields,
Mr. William Mewburn, Banbury,
Mr. Henry Mitchell, Bradford,
Mr. W. Pearce, London,
Mr. W. W. Pocock, London,
Mr. M. Rhodes, Bradford,
Mr. W. Smith, Leeds,
Mr. J. Thackray, Leeds,
Mr. John Vanner, London,
Mr. Jabez Woolley, Leeds,
Mr. M. M. Youll, Newcastle-on-Tyne;

with those gentlemen who may be chosen by the Circuit-Stewards and District-Treasurers of each District, at the May District-Meetings in Great Britain, to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission and Contingent-Fund Committee, held preparatory to the Conference, and such of the District Chapel Secretaries as may have permission to attend the next Conference.

N.B. (1.) The Wesleyan Chapel Committee usually meet on the first Wednesday of each month.

All Communications intended for the Committee must reach the Secretaries not later than the Saturday preceding the day of the usual Monthly Meeting.

(2.) All applications in reference to Chapel Affairs, whether relating to Loans, Annual or Final Grants, Erections, Enlargements, Alterations, Purchases, or Sales of Wesleyan Trust-property, including Organs, must be sent to THE GENERAL SECRETARIES, Wesleyan Chapel Committee, Oldham-street, Manchester. All such applications to be made on the authorised Schedules, as undermentioned, which may be obtained from the Wesleyan Conference-Office, London :—

Schedule I. New Chapels.—II. School-rooms.—III. Enlargements and Alterations.—IV. Organs.—V. Sales.—VI. Annual or Final Grants.—VII. Loans.

(3.) As a general rule, all applications for Annual or Final Grants must be submitted to the May District-Meetings; but cases of sudden or special exigency, requiring relief by Grant, may be considered, if they pass the September District-Meetings.

Applications for Loans only may be sent at any time to the Committee; but, in every case, only upon the Schedule provided for that purpose. Applications for relief both by Grants and Loans, when both are included in one effort, must pass through the May or the September District-Meetings.

(4.) In any case of proved urgency, relating to the erection or enlargement, purchase or sale, of any Chapel, School, or other Trust-property, where it would be seriously detrimental to defer the consideration of the case till the Meeting of either the May or the September District-Committee, it is competent to the Chapel Sub-Committee of the District to consider such case; and, on receiving a Schedule from such Sub-Committee properly filled up and signed, the Chapel Committee shall be authorised to deal with such case as though it had passed the District-Meeting. All such cases, however, must be reported to the ensuing District-Meeting by the Chairman or the Secretary of the Sub-Committee, with the circumstances which rendered such mode of procedure necessary. Any expenses incurred by the calling together of such Committees for the purposes aforesaid must be defrayed by the parties on whose behalf the Meetings are held.

(5.) In applications to the Committee for modifications of the terms of Erections, Enlargements, &c., some of the Trustees, or other responsible projectors of the undertaking, should signify their concurrence with the application of the Superintendent by their signatures, as in the case of original applications.

(6.) The Conference approves of the employment, in future, of a larger proportion of the Fund in aiding New Erections, and authorises the appropriation of one-fourth of the Loan-Fund raised in 1853, in Loans, and of the surplus of the annual income above £4,000, less the expenses of management, in Grants, for this purpose.

(7.) It is particularly requested that parties desirous of applying to the Committee will carefully consider the Regulations adopted by the Conference of 1854, and contained in Appendix No. IV. of the Minutes of that year, and subsequent Regulations; as well as the cautionary Regulations contained in the Minutes of 1851, Vol. XI., pp. 652—655.

(8.) The Conference directs special attention to the following standing order:—"No Superintendent shall permit the occupation, for Connexional purposes, of any property affected by our Rules, until he has obtained the formal consent of the Committee."

N.B. The private addresses of the General Chapel Secretaries are:—Rev. John Bedford, 18, Acomb-street, Manchester; Rev. William Edwards, Lincoln-Grove, Plymouth-Grove, Manchester.

GIFTS OF CHAPELS AND OTHER PROPERTY.

The thanks of the Conference are most respectfully presented—

To Alfred John Norman Chamberlin, Esq., for the gift of a Chapel, at Salhouse, near Norwich.

To John Hargrave, Esq., for the gift of a Sunday-school and House, at Kirkstall, near Leeds.

To Mr. J. Hebron, for the gift of a Chapel, costing £130, at Scaling, in the Danby Circuit.

To John Hartley, Esq., for the gift of eligible School-premises in connection with Trinity Chapel, Wolverhampton, costing upwards of £800.

NEW CHAPELS IN WATERING-PLACES.

The Conference rejoices to hear of the measure of success which has attended the special efforts of the Rev. William M. Punshon, as sanctioned in 1862, to raise a fund for the purpose of making Grants to aid in the erection of Chapels in those places of resort which many families of our people visit; and directs that the following regulations shall be observed in the administration of the Fund :—

1. That, as a general rule, applications for help in the way of grant toward the erection of Chapels in Watering-places, and places of summer resort, shall be made only to the Committee of the Fund to be raised for that purpose.

2. That, nevertheless, as cases of very special exigency may arise, in which, in the opinion of that Committee, further Connexional help may be desirable, that Committee may recommend an application to the Chapel-Committee for additional assistance.

3. That, in all cases obtaining assistance from the Special Fund for Watering-places, no debt shall be allowed to remain, except what may be obtained as Loan from any Connexional Fund.

4. That, as one great object of this Fund is to secure the erection of suitable Chapels which may aid the usual sources of Income for the support of the Ministry, all Trustees obtaining assistance from the Special Fund for Watering-places shall be advised, in the distribution of their surplus income, to make the support of the Ministry a principal object.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

Q. XV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the CHILDREN'S FUND?

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the District-Treasurers of the Children's Fund throughout the kingdom, for their kind services during the year; and also to the REV. DR. WADDY, and JOSHUA MOSS, ESQ., the General Treasurers, and to the REV. GEORGE STRINGER ROWE, the General Secretary, of the Fund.

2. The REV. DR. WADDY, and WILLIAM MEWBURN, ESQ., are appointed General Treasurers, and the REV. GEORGE STRINGER ROWE the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

3. Balances due from District-Treasurers should be remitted to the REV. DR. WADDY, 3, Chester-Place, Kennington-Cross, S. Letters on business relating to this Fund, and the Schedules from the Districts and District-Treasurers, should be sent to the REV. GEORGE STRINGER ROWE, Blackheath, S.E.

4. In conformity with the standing rule, which makes provision for the children of our Ministers from a certain rate of contribution in proportion to the number of members in Society, it is agreed that for the ensuing year ninety members shall provide the sum of Six Guineas for the purposes of sustentation, and to cover the deficiencies of the Schools' Fund. The following statement has accordingly been drawn up, determining the number of Children's Allowances to be provided by the several Districts in the year 1865-66, and to be allotted, at the September District-Meetings, to the Circuits, according to rule :—

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee of Management, and of the Army Committee; and directs that the Resolutions passed by the General Committee, and the Army Returns, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendixes, Nos. IV. and IX.)

2. The Conference views, with much interest and hope, the planting and growth of living Churches of Christ on Home-Mission Stations. It records its conviction that our Home-Mission work is fostering among our Societies increased directness of aim in the conversion of sinners to God, and is persuaded that the ungodliness and ignorance of millions of our fellow-countrymen call for an extension of this work to villages where there is no evangelical teaching, as well as among multitudes in our large towns who call not on the name of the Lord.

3. That the Conference—being desirous that our Home-Mission and our Army work should be sustained and enlarged without financial pressure being felt; and having arranged for a large additional expenditure during the next year—trusts that the claims of this Fund will be more fully made known to our people by the multiplication of Home-Missionary Meetings, and by organized efforts to diffuse information and obtain regular Subscribers.

4. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—The Conference, while deeming it undesirable to adopt any sudden or general change, is of opinion, that, wherever our friends in the Circuits desire to adopt the weekly system of collecting for the united purpose of Home and Foreign Missions, no impediment should be placed in their way: always, however, on the express understanding that, in every case, the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas-Offerings on the average of several preceding years. And, as cases reported show that, in some places, the amount raised for the united objects may be more than double the proceeds of the Juvenile Christmas-Offering, the Conference strongly urges that, in all such cases, at least one-half of the total sums shall be devoted to the Foreign Missions.

The Conference is decidedly of opinion, that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of these Funds respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees; and that sums so remitted to the Home-Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration, if it request a grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home-Missions.

5. The Conference hears, with regret, that the Rev. Francis A. West feels compelled, by the state of his health, to retire from the office of Treasurer of this Fund. It assures him of its high appreciation of his diligent and faithful services in this office during the last eight years, and tenders to him its cordial and unanimous thanks.

6. JOHN VANNER, ESQ., and the Rev. GEORGE T. PERKS, are appointed the Treasurers; and the REV. CHARLES PREST, and the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES, are re-appointed the Secretaries, and the REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY the Assistant-Secretary. The Committee which shall meet before the next Conference shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; William Mewburn, Esq., one of the Treasurers, and the Rev. George Stringer Rowe, the Secretary of the Children's Fund; the Committee of Management; also, the

2. The Superintendents are requested to obtain the private Subscriptions in the month of May or June; and to send the lists, and pay the Subscriptions to their respective Financial Secretaries.

3. The Circuit Treasurers are requested to close their accounts with the Class-leaders not later than Christmas, and to present their statement to the Christmas Quarterly-Meeting. The District Treasurers are requested to remit the contributions from the classes, as soon as possible, to the REV. JOHN RATTENBURY, 8, Arundel-square, Liverpool-road, London, N., and to close their accounts not later than the May District-Meeting.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Resolutions passed at the Meeting of the General Committee of Review, held on Tuesday, July 25th; and directs that they be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VII.)

The Conference approves of the recommendation of the General Committee of Review, that, as the existing sources of income have failed to yield adequate support to the Institution, and with the prospect of increased expenditure, an appeal should be made to the Connexion at large to meet the present deficiencies by means of a Public Collection; and directs that a Collection be made for this object in all our Circuits, at such time during the next year as may be found by the Superintendents to be most convenient; and that the sums so collected be immediately remitted to the REV. JOHN FARRAR, Woodhouse-Grove, Apperley-Bridge, near Leeds.

2. JAMES HEALD, ESQ., and the REV. JOHN FARRAR, are requested to continue in office as General Treasurers; and the REV. GEORGE T. PERKS is re-appointed General Secretary. P. BRAMES HALL and THOMAS KNIGHT, ESQS., are re-appointed Treasurers of the Southern Branch; GEORGE MARSDEN and JOHN NAPIER, ESQS., Treasurers of the Northern Branch. The REV. GERVASE SMITH is re-appointed Secretary of the Southern Branch; and the REV. JOHN HARTLEY is re-appointed Secretary of the Northern Branch.

3. The Committee for the Special Examination of Candidates for our Ministry shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Tutors and House-Governors of both Branches, the Missionary Secretaries, and such other Ministers as may be selected from their own number by the London District-Committee. The REV. JAMES D. BROCKLEHURST, the REV. JOHN CLULOW, and the REV. W. M. PUNSHON, M.A., are the Secretaries of this Committee.

4. The Conference directs that steps be taken, with as little delay as possible, to enlarge the premises at Didsbury, so as to accommodate sixty Students, according to the plans submitted to the General Committee by the Didsbury Local Committee.

Q. XIX. Who are the GENERAL COMMITTEE of the Institution for the ensuing year?

William Mewburn, John Fernley, John Vanner, John Napier, and Samuel R. Healey; with power to add to their number. This Committee shall have power to purchase.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Special Meeting of the Education Committee, held in Birmingham, on Monday, July 24th; and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VIII.)

2. The Conference rejoices in the encouraging reports of the state of the Westminster Training College, and of the elementary Day-schools through the country, and earnestly hopes that no endeavours will be spared by the Ministers, teachers, and friends to sustain the schools of the Connexion in full efficiency, both in religious training and in secular teaching.

3. Deeply interested as the Connexion has shown itself to be in week-day and Sabbath-school education, the Conference trusts that there is a growing conviction of the importance of bringing into our schools, everywhere, the children of our own people, and, as far as possible, the neglected children of other persons, as eminently calculated to maintain and extend the work of God among us, and to promote the highest interests of the nation at large.

4. The Conference renews the expression of its judgment, that a more commodious Chapel is requisite to complete the Training Institution at Westminster; so that the children who attend the schools through the week may (when the parents do not object) be taken, with the Students and Teachers, to our own Christian worship; but for whom the present Chapel affords no adequate accommodation: and the Conference hereby authorises the Committee of Education to apply to all the Circuits, through the Superintendents, during the year, for contributions, in addition to such as may be made in the Circuit within which the Institution is included, towards the erection of such a Chapel.

5. The Conference has heard with deep interest the valuable report of the Rev. John Clulow on the state of our Sunday-schools;—it also records its satisfaction at the cordial welcome which Mr. Clulow has received from the conductors of our Sunday-schools in every part of the Connexion which he has visited, and the judicious manner in which he has performed his difficult duties.

6. Deeply impressed with the importance of the inquiries which Mr. Clulow has been engaged in making, the Conference is anxious that he should continue and complete those inquiries, under the direction of the Education Committee; and hopes that that Committee may be prepared, after a careful consideration of all the facts brought before them, to propose to the next Conference some suggestions for the improvement of our Sunday-schools.

N.B. The Conference directs that the Examination of Pupil-teachers in Religious Knowledge be held on the first Saturday in March of each year; that the questions be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at places suitable for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District-Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School-Committees; and that two Examiners of all the answers in each District (of whom the District Educational Secretary shall be one) be appointed by the Financial District-Meeting.

7. The Rev. John Scott, Principal of the Training College, is re-appointed Chairman of the Education Committee; John Robinson Kay, Esq., and the Rev. Dr. Jobson, are re-appointed the Treasurers; and the Rev. Michael C. Taylor is re-appointed the Secretary.

N.B. All communications are to be addressed to the Secretary, Wesleyan Normal Institution, Horseferry-Road, Westminster.

8. The Committee shall consist of the following persons; viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Chairman, the Treasurers, and the Secretary; the Visiter of Sunday-schools; the with those Gentlemen who may be chosen by the Circuit-Stewards and District-Treasurers, at the May District-Meetings in Great Britain, to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission and Contingent-Fund Committee, preparatory to the Conference.

N.B.—1. The Education Committee is empowered to invite to this Meeting any other Friends who take part in the support and extension of our Day-School system.

2. The Conference directs all who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises, for the establishment of new schools, to communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to the general eligibility of their projected undertaking, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

N.B.—Donations of School-buildings are acknowledged on page 167.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Lord's-Day Committee?

A. 1. That the Conference receives with satisfaction the Report which has been presented by the Sabbath

Committee, to the effect that, during the past year no attempt has been made in the British Legislature to revive the question of the opening on the Lord's Day of certain Public Institutions, supported by general taxation; it approves the proposal to open the British Museum and National Gallery on certain week-day evenings, and earnestly hopes that arrangements to complete so desirable an object will be speedily effected.

2. That the Conference regrets that the efforts which have been made by the friends of Sabbath observance during several years past, to obtain an Act of Parliament to close Public-houses on the Lord's Day, have not been successful; it strongly recommends, should any well-considered and judicious measure be introduced into Parliament during the coming Session, that our people will give it that general and vigorous support which the importance of the question deserves and demands.

3. That the Conference learns with sorrow that the exertions which have been made to secure the cessation of Sunday Excursion-Trains have not been successful. It considers that only a clear necessity can justify Sunday travelling, and fears that it is often resorted to without sufficient cause, even by professedly religious people. It solemnly calls the attention of our Congregations and Societies to the importance of abstaining from any participation in this growing evil, and of setting before the world an example of strict and consistent Sabbath consecration.

4. That the Rev. George Maunder and the Rev. John Baker be appointed Secretaries for the next year.

5. The following Ministers and Gentlemen are the Committee for the next year:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries; and the

Rev. William Arthur,
—— William O. Booth,
Mr. W. Bourne,
— J. S. Budgett,

DECEASE OF THE LATE PRESIDENT.

Resolved unanimously, That the Conference is called, in the all-wise but mysterious administrations of Divine Providence, to mourn the decease of its late honoured President, the Rev. William L. Thornton, M.A., during the year of his Presidency. It cannot record this unexpected event on the pages of its Journal, without sincere thanksgiving to God for the grace which attended His servant to the sudden, but peaceful, close of his valued life. Favoured with rich mental gifts, which he had improved by the several opportunities and facilities placed within his reach, he consecrated all, without reserve, to the work of His great Master. He was an able and eloquent Minister of Christ's gospel, exemplary as Tutor and Editor, and eminently acceptable to our Ministers and people in the high office of President, confided to him last year by the all but unanimous suffrages of his brethren. The Conference bows in submission to this decree of the most High God; with earnest prayer that He may continue to raise up and sustain a succession of faithful men, who, in every province of labour assigned to them, shall carry out the counsels of His own will. The Conference would also express its sympathy with the bereaved widow and children, committing them into the hands of Him who is the Husband of the widow, and the Father of the Fatherless.

DEPUTATION FROM THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES.

Resolved unanimously, That the Conference have heard with great satisfaction the address of Bishop Janes, and the information he has communicated concerning the state and progress of the work of God under the care of that Church which he represents. They rejoice in having seen their highly-respected friend among them. They cordially thank him for the able and Christian manner in which he has discharged his public duties, and commend him to the protecting care of our Heavenly Father during his return-voyage, as well as throughout his subsequent career.

INVITATIONS OF MINISTERS TO CIRCUITS.

Resolved, that the Minute of 1841 on this subject, (Minutes, Vol. IX., page 249,) be modified as follows:—The practice which has of late so generally prevailed of addressing invitations to our Ministers from the September Quarterly Meetings, having been found in its operation to produce serious inconvenience in several respects, and to be exceedingly detrimental to the spiritual interests of our people; the Conference, therefore, unanimously and earnestly recommends that the Quarterly Meetings, throughout the Connexion, should defer such invitations till the March Quarterly Meetings. And it resolves, that no corres- pondence of a Preacher with a Circuit, or Circuit-Stewards, before the Conference preceding any such invitation, shall be allowed to influence the deliberations of the Stationing Committee, or of the Conference, in relation to such Preacher's appointment to that Circuit.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. Thanks to the retiring President.—Resolved unanimously, That the most respectful and cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. George Osborn, D.D., who succeeded to the office rendered vacant by the lamented death of Mr. Thornton, for the special and valuable services which, in this emergency, he has been enabled, by the Divine goodness, to render with undiminished vigour.

2. Thanks to the Secretary.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. John Farrar, for his able and acceptable services as the Secretary of the Conference.

3. Resolved, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Dr. Osborn, for his very impressive Charge addressed to the newly-ordained Ministers; and that he be earnestly requested to publish it at an early period.

4. Regulations concerning Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain.—In place of the existing provision for the trial of an accused Chairman, (Minutes of Conference, Vol. I., p. 270, Question 20, clause 4 of Answer,) and also with a view to provide for any vacancy in the Chair of a District, occasioned by death or otherwise, the Conference enacts:—

(1.) In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District in Great Britain, in reference either to his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority, (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient,) to summon a meeting of such Preachers in the District as are in full connexion with the Conference, and to place the Chairman on his trial before them; when, if the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting, in conjunction with the President, shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the Chair, and to elect another Chairman in his place.

(2.) In case the Chair of any District in Great Britain be rendered vacant by the death or incapacity of the Chairman, or otherwise, the duties and responsibilities of the Chairman shall, pro tempore, devolve upon the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall take steps, either by convening the Ministers of the District, or by correspondence with them, to obtain their suffrages for the Minister among themselves who is deemed by them best qualified to fill the vacant office; and shall then declare and appoint the Minister, thus selected, to be the Chairman of that District till the ensuing Conference.

5. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders'-Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders'-Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit-town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a member, shall be associated with the Leaders'-Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

6. District-Meetings of 1866.—It is resolved, That the Annual Meetings of the several District-Committees shall be held between the 13th and the 20th of May, 1866; with the exception of the Lincoln, Hull, North Wales, and South Wales Districts.

7. Freed-Men's Aid Association.—Resolved unanimously, That the Conference receives with pleasure the Address of the Freed-Men's Aid Association, and commends the most seasonable and beneficial work in which that Association is engaged, to the support of our friends generally.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Home-Missionary Ministers.—(1.) At each Financial District-Committee a return shall be made, from each Circuit in which a Home-Missionary Minister is stationed, of the sum contributed by the Circuit to the Home-Mission Fund, and the cost of such appointment, to the Home-Mission Committee; according to the "Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers" adopted by the Conference of 1859.

(2.) The Conference directs that a special inquiry be made at the May District-Meeting, whether the "Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers," adopted by the Conference of 1859, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits in which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case be made to the Conference.

2. Annual Return of Members in Society.—The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported by a presentation of the Circuit-Schedules at the District-Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

3. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the "Liverpool Minutes," besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District-Committee, (as our standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

4. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, October 6th, January 5th, March 30th, and June 29th.

5. Rule of 1797 concerning Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797, on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person, so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

6. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society-Meetings.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint Special Society-Meetings to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

7. Schedules and Circulars for Connexional Business.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorizes them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

8. Circuit-Schedules.—In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly under the examination of the District-Meetings, copies of the Printed Circuit-Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, examined, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxv.; Vol. VII., p. 67.)

The Circuit Schedules containing the Returns of the Members in Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District-Meetings, to the Rev. John W. Greeves, 17, Hanover-street, Leeds.

9. Minor District-Meetings.—In any case in which the Chairman of a District may deem it necessary to appoint a Minor District-Committee, should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members thereof, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up.

10. Candidates for Admission on Trial.— Those Preachers who are recommended for admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District-Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusively of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District-Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the London Committee of Examination.

11. Preachers on Trial.—(1.) The Conference, having been informed that in several Circuits the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity for receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves, that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this holy sacrament. (2.) Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District-Meetings.

12. District-Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are peremptorily required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District-Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District-Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference; and a third shall be delivered to the Assistant-Secretaries, on the Thursday preceding the Conference, and by them to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved, under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

13. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen as to this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders'-Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

14. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers, needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District; the Conference directs the Brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case.

15. District Missionary Committees.—The inquiry respecting Expenses incurred at Missionary Anniversaries is to be made at the September, instead of the May, District-Meeting.

16. Contingent Fund.—In future, all payments on account of Ordinary Deficiencies shall be made through the medium of the Financial Secretaries of Districts. The payments on account of Home Missionaries are to be made directly to and by the Treasurers of the Fund.

17. The Army.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to inquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance; distinguishing the number of members in Society. The returns given are to be recorded in the District-Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

18. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

19. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1866.

Q. XXIV. When and where shall our NEXT CONFERENCE be held?

A. In Leeds, commencing on Thursday, July 26th, 1866, at Nine o'clock A.M.

Signed in behalf and by order of the CONFERENCE,

WILLIAM SHAW, PRESIDENT.
JOHN FARRAR, SECRETARY.

Birmingham, August 11th, 1865.

The PRESIDENT's address is, 33, Walpole-Street, King's-Road, Chelsea, S.W.; and the SECRETARY's, Woodhouse-Grove, Apperley-Bridge, near Leeds.

ORDER OF COMMITTEES FOR 1866.

The COMMITTEES preparatory to the next Conference are appointed to meet in Leeds, as follows: (subject, however, to any change of the particular order, days, or hours, here specified, which the PRESIDENT, giving due notice to the parties concerned, may find it expedient to make:) namely,

1. Stationing Committee,		Tuesday, July 17th, at 9 A.M.
2. Auxiliary Fund Committee,	(p. 175,)	Saturday, July 21st, at 10 A.M.
3. General Education Committee,	(pp. 180—182,)	Monday, July 23d, at 9 A.M.
4. Chapel-Committee,	(pp. 164, 165,)	Monday, July 23d, at 4 P.M.

5. Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and Children's Fund Committee,	(pp. 172, 173,)	Tuesday, July 24th, at 9 A.M.
6. The Sabbath Committee,	(pp. 183, 184,)	Tuesday, July 24th, at 4 P.M.
7. Theological Institution Committee of Review,	(p. 177, 178,)	Tuesday, July 24th, at 6 P.M.
8. Missionary Committee of Review,	(pp. 155—157,)	Wednesday, July 25th, at 9 A.M.
9. Annual Meeting of Trustees of New-Kingswood School,		Wednesday, July 25th, at 4 P.M.
10. Annual Meetings of Trustees of the two Institution-Houses,		Wednesday, July 25th, at 5 P.M.
11. Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools' Committee,	(pp. 159, 160.)	Wednesday, July 25th, at 6 P.M.

N.B. 1. The Secretaries of the several Funds are directed to meet at Leeds, on Thursday, July 19th, for the purpose of preparing for their respective Committees the accounts of their several departments.

2. The Assistant-Secretaries of the Conference, the Rev. Messrs. John Bedford, John H. James, and William M. Punshon, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District-Minutes various Lists, &c., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of the several Funds, on Thursday, July 19th, perfect copies of the District-Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1866.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1865-66.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year; viz.,—

1. The private Donations in the Classes, on behalf of the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund, shall be entered in the Class-Books at the next September Visitation, and collected in the month of October, and forwarded at once to the District-Treasurer. (See Q. xxvii., A. 2, Minutes of 1851.)

2. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the New-Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, &c., are to be made in the early part of the month of November, 1865; and the amount, without any deduction on account of Educational Allowances to Children, is to be immediately remitted to the Rev. Frederick Payne, Llandudno, North Wales, one of the General Secretaries for the School-Fund. Each Superintendent must also send to Mr. Payne a particular account of the sums contributed to the Fund, and of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

3. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations, for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1866; and forthwith remitted to the Rev. John Farrar, Woodhouse-Grove, Apperley-Bridge, near Leeds.

4. The Annual Public Collections for the General Chapel Fund are to be made, and Subscriptions solicited, in the month of February, 1866; and the whole amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Messrs. Bedford and Edwards, General Secretaries, Oldham-Street Chapel, Manchester.

5. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made, as usual, at the March Visitation; and the money to be paid at the District-Meetings in May.

6. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Wesleyan Education Fund are to be made in the month of April, 1866; and the money to be paid, at or before the May District-Meeting, to the Financial Secretaries, and by them remitted, with the Circuit Lists, to the Rev. Dr. Jobson, 21, Highbury-place, London, N.

7. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised must be remitted, through the hands of the District-Treasurers, to the General Treasurers, whose address is, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street-within, London, E. C.

8. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Worn-out Ministers' and Widows' Fund are to be solicited in the month of May, 1866; and a list of Subscriptions is to be sent to the Secretary, the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, Lincoln, not later than the 30th of June. (See Q. XXVIII., Minutes of 1851.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to Messrs. Smith and Rattenbury, the Treasurers.

9. The Collections in aid of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, are to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1866; but, wherever practicable, before the May District-Meeting, and in connection with a Public Meeting, as recommended by the Conference. Subscriptions and Donations to be paid to the Treasurers as early as possible.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE

TO

THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dearly Beloved Brethren,

"Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." "We give thanks to God always for you all; . . . remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father." We praise God, whose good hand upon us for good has brought us together, in our hundred and twenty-second Annual Conference, for the opportunity He has thus vouchsafed to us of conveying to you afresh the assurance of our love, and solicitude for your growth in grace.

We bless God that His faithful love enables us once more to report an increase in our Societies. Our returns show that, in the twelve months past, not less than eighteen thousand seven hundred and ninety-three persons have entered into full church-membership with us; that five thousand five hundred and fifty-seven members have gone to swell (as we humbly hope) the great gathering of God's people above; and that, after supplying inevitable losses from other causes, we have now one thousand one hundred and fifty-nine in our Societies more than were reported last year. This, brethren, presents an unquestionable and an animating proof that "the Lord our God is with us, and the shout of a King is among us." At the same time, the comparison of this increase with those over which our Great Head has caused us to rejoice in by-gone years, calls us with awakening voice to humiliation before God. Never had we in the field so vast an agency for bringing souls to Christ; never did God ordain for us a peace more profound, more healthy, more auspicious; never, we believe, was there amongst any body of Christ's ministers a brotherly love, truer, warmer, more confiding, more vigilant, than that which at this moment gives to us all one soul; never had we a more intelligent and resolute grasp of the everlasting Gospel, God's power unto salvation; never was our course of evangelical activity less impeded by financial embarrassments; never did we witness such a rapid, and well-ordered, material extension as during the past year; never did God grant to us more favour amongst sister churches, or a higher degree of public esteem! Surely, the most unfriendly observer, standing on a due elevation, and having his eyes open, must—in view of our widely-spread community, our multiplying chapels, and the happy social transformations which spring up around them—needs exclaim, "How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, thy tabernacles, O Israel. As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the Lord hath planted."

But does our success abound in proportion to the increase of our agency, and the multiplication of our means? "Return, we beseech Thee, O God of hosts:" —"O Lord, we beseech Thee, show us Thy glory." Assuredly, brethren, the most ungracious and unfitting thing, the feeling least pleasing to God, and least profitable to us, would be a thankless despondency. No cry so ungracious as this, "Is the Lord among us or not?" Whilst we are deploring the fewness of our conversions, there is perpetual joy in the presence of the angels of God "over one sinner that repenteth." What is needed is but a mightier forth-putting of a Power already with us, ever present and never ineffective. What we want, in order to make way for the freer flow of the saving grace of God, is to repent of, and to renounce, our own unbelief, worldliness, and indifference, and by earnest and importunate, combined and continuous prayer, to draw from Him that full communication of His convincing and sanctifying Spirit which He is yearning to impart. It is our clear conviction, brethren, that the secret of the want of a larger success is to be found in the neglect of those more privileged means of grace which have heretofore fed the life of Methodism; from the institution of which it dates its existence, and from the surrender of which, were that conceivable, it must inevitably date its decline. A strong personal conviction of the realities of the eternal world, a desire to flee from the wrath to come, called forth these happy gatherings for mutual guidance and encouragement; the conscious possession of the spiritual life, and the eager desire to nourish and mature that life, gave ever-growing interest in these weekly conversations on the deep things of God; whilst they both maintained and met the holy aspiration to "comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge." Think not that it was by accident that the spiritual life in Methodism fashioned for itself an organization so exquisitely adapted for its conservation and growth. We beseech you not to allow either taste, or temperament, or theory, to bereave your souls of the incalculable good to be derived from these forms of Christian fellowship.

We entreat all who meet in class not to forsake the table of the Lord. Drawing nigh with faith and love, they will most surely meet their Lord, to the inexpressible comfort and refreshment of their souls. We entreat those who regularly partake of that blessed Sacrament not to suppress, but freely to indulge, those sentiments of love for the people of God, and craving for fellowship with them, which a true participation in the Holy Communion will certainly inspire. And be assured, brethren, that to none is this fellowship of saints more necessary than to those whom business brings into daily contact with the society and spirit of the world; and to none are contact and fellowship with the piety of the poor more desirable, or eventually more delightful, than to the thoughtful, the educated, and the refined. Let there but be a renewed interest in the class-meeting, the prayer-meeting, the lovefeast, and there need be no misgiving as to the strong manifestation amongst us of a taste for architectural beauty, or of a desire for the highest possible decorum and completeness in our public worship. These result from the rapid general extension of intellectual cultivation and taste, from which it is neither to be expected nor desired that Methodism alone should be secluded.

The steady advance amongst us of education is no more to be wondered at,—no more to be deprecated,—than the inevitable increase of prosperity and gradual rise in social position, through the blessing of God upon good habits. But, to forget that increasing wealth, social influence, mental culture and refinement, involve new dangers and temptations, were to betray strange heedlessness of the solemn lessons of Church history,—strange ignorance of Satan's devices and the deceitfulness of the human heart,—strange deafness to the warnings of Holy Writ; and gross disregard of the fatherly cautions bequeathed to us by the Founder of Methodism. If side by side with, or still in advance of, this progressive taste for architectural ornament and other external aids to worship, there appear a strengthening attachment to, and a stricter attendance on, those social means of grace through which the highest style of Christian experience has been reached and retained, then the tendencies just named could not carry us astray; but if, along with the demand for that which satisfies the eye and ear, and conciliates and charms the taste, there should be found a spreading apathy as to Christian fellowship and social prayer,—that is to say, if, at any time, our church-structures and our church-services should draw off from the true, deep fountains of church-life,—then the distinctive glory of Methodism must soon depart.

It is true that the intense spirituality of Methodism is not its only power. What thanks shall we render God for preserving to us our purity of doctrine; for bidding away from our borders "the abomination that maketh desolate,"—a multiform and encroaching unbelief? But, let us never dream that we can have any sure and permanent guarantee for purity of doctrine, which does not rest on a blessed personal experience of the truth and power of those Divine verities which are our pillar. We, sustained by the trustees of our chapels, are the guardians of doctrine for the present generation; but you, our people, will in reality yield the answer to the question,—Will Methodism retain to the end of time the truth in all its purity and power? We who are here to-day will soon be gone. "Our fathers, where are they?" It is from you that our ranks must be recruited when thinned by death, and over-matched by the ever-expanding dimensions of the work. Methodism is the mother of her own ministry: if our class-meetings be disorganized, if our prayer-meetings be ill-attended, then the lowered tone of spiritual experience must entail the loss, first of power, then of purity in our doctrinal teaching. We earnestly hope that the spacious and attractive chapels which have recently been erected will be made bases of evangelistic operation, that to the poor the Gospel may still be preached. Not that the mission of Methodism is limited to any rank or any race of men. Persons in all ranks have been benefited by it, and may be so again.

But to the conservation and extension of our church, nothing is more essential than the spiritual training of those who have by our ministry been dedicated to Christ in baptism. We solemnly exhort all parents, not only for themselves, but also for their children, to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness," assured that then no "good thing" will be withheld from them. We especially charge those to whom God has entrusted wealth, not to expose their children to the deadly contagion of worldly influences, or to doctrinal teachings which "pervert the Gospel of Christ." What, alas! can compensate for the effacing of holy impressions, the choking of the good seed of the word, the undoing of all the hopeful results of home-discipline and pastoral labour, the hindering of parental prayers! We beseech you not to lay before any of these little ones stepping-stones to temporal advancement, which might easily become stumbling-stones in the race for eternal life. We charge parents not to place obstacles in the way of their children's conversion and consecration to the work of God. How is the demand for an educated ministry—a demand especially urgent in these days—to be met, unless those of our sons who have enjoyed the highest educational advantages, be allowed to yield to the pressure of conviction by which the Lord of the harvest would thrust them forth into His harvest? Be assured that from the stifling of such convictions there may flow far worse results than the hardships and privations of the Christian ministry: a false position in life, that warping of the character which ofttimes follows a wavering in the career of duty; the hiding in the earth of talents which belong to God; the controversy which Providence maintains with those who desert the post assigned them by the grace and gifts of Heaven. A well-instructed childhood should be the pledge and presage of an earnest and useful manhood; and it is only by the dedication of our children to God, that our Church can continue to be a "tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth," which God sees that it is "good." These considerations derive additional urgency from the portentous activity and the insidious advances, of that antichristian principle which moves from opposite directions, in the double form of Romanism on the one side and Rationalism on the other. "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ."

Finally, brethren, we are persuaded that, notwithstanding much cause for heart-searching and humiliation before God, there exists in the state of the Societies abundant reason for cheerful gratitude and ardent hope. He whom we serve "is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think," and has promised His Holy Spirit without measure or restriction to them that ask Him. Having poured upon you such a spirit of generosity, He can also pour out a spirit of activity and earnest cultivation of the life of God; and He who is saying to so many, "It is good that it was in thine heart to build Me a house," can fill each house with His glory, and each heart with His love.

For ourselves we return to our labours, full of thankfulness and confidence:

"The vineyard of the Lord
Before His labourers lies;
And, lo! we see the vast reward
Which waits us in the skies."

The solemn event which has marked the history of Methodism during the past year, the sudden calling to his rest of our late lamented President, conveys the summons to us and to you, "Be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1864,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1864.

Beloved Brethren,

Heartily do we renew our expressions of sympathy and love; and we are happy to learn that the interest we feel in your affairs is to you any ground of confidence, any source of consolation, amidst the discouragements that beset you. We are not unmindful of your difficulties and sorrows. We venture, however, to suggest that the evils you mourn are not unbalanced ones. The emigration, for instance, which at present so severely tries you, will probably, before long, result in commercial and social advantage to Ireland, some of the earliest fruits whereof your own Societies will surely reap. But, if not,—if Ireland's difficulties and troubles arise from causes that commercial prosperity and social improvement cannot reach,—still your loss may, by the blessing of God, be so certainly the means of gain to other lands, that we hesitate not to address to you words of comfort and hope. You are yourselves anticipating, in a nearly-approaching Jubilee year, a thank-offering from our brethren in America; an offering which will be regarded by us all as an appropriate and grateful return for the spiritual benefits obtained by them, in the first instance, through the labours of an Irish emigrant a hundred years ago. And, although no person in the present day is likely to be thrown upon opportunities for usefulness such as helped to make Philip Embury so distinguished a man, yet it may be reasonably expected, that, among the many emigrants who leave your shores, not a few will go forth bearing precious seed; that distant nations will be enriched by their Christian life and love; and that, in the world to come, you will joy in their success.

From your Address we observe that you are apparently enfeebled, not only by emigration, but by what you deem an unfair competition with other churches, as well as by the hostility of some who are sustained by a national endowment. We might remind you that there is nothing new in all this. Methodism did not originate in State favour, and was never dependent upon the patronage of the affluent or the great. "The friends of all," our Founder and his associates were fearless of all. We commend to your faithful imitation the conduct of our fathers; and doubt not that, in the unfaltering maintenance of saving truth, you will discover your best policy and realize your greatest strength; while, in the avoidance of a spirit that returns evil for evil, you will escape many things that endanger Christian meekness and peace.

But, were there nothing in the history of our own church to inculcate both a forbearing and a cheerful spirit, there is much in the apostolic "greeting" addressed by St. James to those Christians who in his day were "scattered abroad," which will afford you instruction and comfort. Their very trials they were taught to regard as promotive of joy,—"all joy;" and they were encouraged, by a view of the impartial and enriching beneficence of God, to reckon upon a Divine wisdom to guide and bless them under the severe discipline to which they were subjected.

We have heard, with no ordinary satisfaction and thankfulness, that your efforts to promote the religious and secular instruction of the young have been attended with success, and that your prospect of yet more extended usefulness in this important department of Christian service is so hopeful. We believe you will vigilantly improve the advantages already gained; and we shall rejoice to hear that your Collegiate Institution is established, securing to the higher class of your people an education which is so urgently required, and, we may add, on your part so much deserved.

We are gratified, also, to note the esteem in which you hold the brethren who from time to time have been deputed by this Conference to visit you. Those who have been thus honoured earnestly reciprocate your confidence and affection. Their services have been cheerfully rendered, and have been more than repaid by your generous and characteristic hospitality. The opportunity, afforded by these visitations, of bringing our common Methodism under the uniform direction of principles and Connexional usages which we all recognise, cannot be too highly valued, or too carefully improved.

Some other topics named in your Address are of a character and magnitude to deserve a more enlarged consideration than can be given to them in this reply. The Jubilee success is of this class. Referring you to the official and other records respecting this interesting and important subject, (which will in due course be published,) all that we can at present do is to ask you to join us in devout thanksgiving to Almighty God for the liberality, the holy joy, and the spirit of unity and love, which have eminently distinguished the Jubilee meetings of the past year.

We rejoice to inform you, that, although distressed and humbled before God on account of the numerical state of our own Societies, we have cause of confidence and hope in the stability and peace with which, during another year, we have been blessed. Our appliances for usefulness never gave greater promise. The Home-Mission movement, in particular, steadily increases in distinctiveness and force, awaking us up at the same time to a startling and almost bewildering view of the spiritually destitute and wretched condition of the masses that crowd into our large towns,—especially into the metropolis of this empire. Some endeavour, though a feeble and very inadequate one, will be made to meet the necessities of this portion of our home population.

We are also thankful to report a continuance of the success which has now for some years attended our chapel-affairs. In very many instances oppressive debts have been greatly reduced; and, in different parts of our land, large and beautiful sanctuaries have been erected free of debt,—some of them by the munificence of individuals, and others by the enterprise and liberality of our people at large.

We commit ourselves afresh to another year of ministerial service, deeply impressed with our dependence upon the aid and blessing of the Holy Spirit for success. May the promised grace and peace of God be with us, and with you! We agree with you when you affirm that Methodism is still needed in Ireland, and that an abandonment of your stations would be injurious to the cause of evangelical truth. In England we are surrounded by churches whose zealous endeavours to multiply Christian agencies must be commended; but no extension of the boundaries of other churches would so pre-occupy the ground as to render the doctrines and privileges of Methodism no longer necessary. The same remark applies, with even greater force, to your country. Still, under God, our very existence depends upon the faithful fulfilment of our mission. We must preach the word with the earnestness, the simplicity, the Divine power, that enabled our fathers to win souls. We must not fail to make distinctive and prominent those doctrines of the Gospel that led to a sound, clear, happy religious experience; and we must adhere to those Christian institutions and spiritual services that gave to original Methodism a form and a power in the land.

We are glad to see your Representatives, the Rev. Messrs. Price, M'Kay, and Grant, in our midst; and to hear from them statements touching your welfare. This fraternal intercourse is ever grateful to us; and we shall be always happy to give an affectionate welcome to the brethren whom you depute to visit us.

The Ex-President, and the Rev. Messrs. William Arthur and Marmaduke C. Osborn, are appointed to accompany the President to your next assembly.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE, 1865,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1865.

Very dear Fathers and Brethren,

We gladly embrace, as a most pleasing privilege, the opportunity which our annual assembly affords for renewing to you the expression of our heartfelt esteem and love. The fellowship we have with you is among the chief occasions of our joy; we are encouraged by the assurance of your fraternal regard and sympathy; and we desire to strengthen and perpetuate those bonds of reciprocal attachment by which we are united in one body, under one Head, by one and the same Spirit.

We mark with unfeigned satisfaction those evidences of growing strength which the several departments of your work supply,—the erection of schools and sanctuaries, the extension of Home-Missionary operations, and those liberal contributions of your people by which debts are removed, and means and agencies increased for further promoting the cause and kingdom of our Redeemer in the earth. And, while the absence of proportionate numerical increase reminds us that no power or might can avail without the Spirit of the Lord, we are, at the same time, encouraged to expect that, in answer to the earnest prayer of His humbled people, He will give that "power from on high" by which those appliances shall be made successful, and that, in addition to the peace you already so richly enjoy, He will now send great spiritual prosperity.

The review of our work in this country furnishes, in many respects, occasion for thankfulness and hope. In the educational department there has been progress. Our Day-schools have been increased. The Connexional-school in Dublin continues to maintain its high character, and its financial position is greatly improved. We have now also the prospect of speedily entering upon the erection of our proposed Collegiate Institution in Belfast. Our funds, too, have been sustained; never, we believe, did our people give more liberally for the support of the ministry; and never did the lay members of our Committees manifest a livelier interest in all our affairs.

We mourn, however, that we again have to report diminished numbers. The same causes still operate. Emigration continues to act as a drain on our resources, affecting not only our numerical strength, but our finances and our local agency, and tending to impoverish the productiveness, without contracting the area, of our field of labour. In many places we are called to watch over thinned and scattered Societies, surrounded on every hand by a vigilant and ever-active Popery; while our difficulties are in no small degree augmented by the systematic opposition of those from whom we might reasonably look for better things.

We are indeed cheered by the consideration that the fruit of our labour is not lost. Representatives of Methodism in other lands convey the gratifying assurance that, if ours have been the tears of the sower, sheaves from the precious seed have filled the hands of other reapers; and we look forward with pleasing anticipation to a day when "he that soweth and he that reapeth shall rejoice together." In the mean time, we trust we may say with confidence that we are endeavouring to maintain our testimony, not in any spirit of hostile rivalry, but in the spirit which characterized the ministry of our fathers, who, through evil and through good report, avowed themselves "the friends of all, the enemies of none."

In view of the religious condition of our country, and of the system of doctrine and discipline committed to us, our conviction deepens that never did Ireland more need a faithful Methodist ministry than now; and, though we often painfully feel the inadequacy of our means to the extent of agency we employ, the sense of this necessity induces us to gird ourselves anew for the requirements and difficulties of our work, and, with fresh courage, to devote ourselves to God and to the service of our generation. We have set apart two of our brethren as General Missionaries,—a form of agency which in past years has been much owned of God, and on which we now confidently expect His blessing.

We deeply sympathize with you under that dispensation of Providence by which our entire Connexion has been called to suffer so great a loss, in the unexpected death of your late President, who, by your appointment, was also to have been ours,—the Rev. William Lockwood Thornton. From that appointment we had anticipated much pleasure and advantage; but, while submitting ourselves to the will of Him who disposes all events for the good of His Church, we are thankful to find that the emergency had been adequately provided for, and we rejoice to have again presiding in our counsels the Rev. Dr. Osborn, whose interest in all our concerns demands our gratitude no less than his valuable pulpit services, and the distinguished ability with which he has filled our chair. The Ex-President, the Rev. Charles Prest, has placed us under renewed obligations by his visit and counsels. The presence of our gifted brother, the Rev. William Arthur, is always grateful to us; and we welcome amongst us with pleasure the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn, whose ministrations have been highly acceptable. In all these messengers of your churches we magnify the grace of God.

Your Missionary Deputation also rendered good service by their able advocacy of the cause which they came to plead.

We send as our Representatives to your next Conference the Rev. Messrs. Henry Price, Wallace M'Mullen, and William Guard Price,—brethren who are conversant with all our affairs, and in whom we have the fullest confidence.

The entire sittings of our Conference were distinguished by the utmost harmony and brotherly affection; and we return to our several spheres of labour, humbled, but at the same time filled with encouragement and hope. On the Lord God who sustained our fathers, and on Him alone, do we depend for success. Herein is our confidence,—"This God is our God for ever and ever." "We have waited for Him, and He will save us:...we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation."

THE

ANSWER OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF AMERICA, 1864,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1863.

Reverend and Beloved Brethren,

Your very kind and fraternal Address, dated August 15th, 1863, and presented to us by your gifted and honoured representative, the Rev. W. L. Thornton, A.M., has afforded us unmingled gratification.

We acknowledge those bonds of a common doctrine, a common origin, and a common aim, which unite us; and we heartily reciprocate your assurance of brotherly love. Your expressions of sympathy with our afflicted nation and people are most grateful to our hearts.

It is not necessary for us to assure you that our Church is loyal to the Government of the United States, and ceases not to pray for its rulers, and for the success of its arms; nor need we say that, while sending her sons by thousands to preserve the nation's life, and put down a wicked and wanton rebellion, she cultivates no personal ill-will toward the enemies of the nation, and ceases not to pray for a righteous peace.

Our consolation, amid the desolations of war, is in the hope that the revolution will roll the nation up to a higher elevation than it could otherwise have attained, even by centuries of peaceful progress.

We bow under the mighty hand of God, well knowing that we have sinned, and deserve chastisement; yet trusting that the rod is used in mercy.

You will rejoice to know that our beloved Bishops unanimously recommended that hereafter no slaveholder should be admitted to our communion; and that our Conference has, with almost entire unanimity, initiated a rule prohibiting the holding of slaves, as well as the purchase or sale of them, upon the ground that slaveholders in the United States can have no serious difficulty in manumitting their bondmen.

It will also be gratifying to you to learn, that while we have suffered a loss of fifty thousand members, owing to the withdrawal of ministers and members in slaveholding territory, the dispersion of many of our Societies upon the border by the progress of rebellious arms, and the losses we have sustained upon the field of battle, our Church has steadily maintained her ground in the loyal States, enlarged her collections for almost every benevolent and religious object in which she was engaged, and increased her church property by millions. Meanwhile she has been gradually extending her line southward, planting her ministers at important points, as the rebellion receded before the national banner, contributing largely to supply the Gospel to the Federal army, and sustaining and strengthening, at the same time, all her foreign and domestic Missions. To God be all the glory!

We regret profoundly that through the intimate business connections which exist between your country and ours, your people, especially in the manufacturing districts, have suffered in consequence of our war. The patience with which they have endured their sufferings is an indication to us that the masses of the British nation understand the principles involved in our struggle, and sympathize with our Government.

The intimate connection of American and British interests is one of those pledges which we delight to contemplate, that the peace shall never hereafter be broken between two nations united not only in origin and language, but in liberty, religion, Protestantism, and eleemosynary and Missionary enterprise.

We cannot forbear to express the pleasure which the visit of your learned and excellent representative has afforded us. His engaging manners, amiable spirit, and evangelical discourses, have endeared him to us; while his clear apprehension of our national struggle, his hearty sympathy with the side of liberty and humanity, excited our admiration; and his admirable exposition of Wesleyan doctrines, sympathies, relations, and secessions, abounding in useful suggestions, strengthened our determination to stand in the old paths.

Desiring to cultivate acquaintance with you, we have deputed our beloved Bishop E. S. Janes, D.D., long known and honoured not only in our own denomination, but in all other Protestant Churches in our land, and our beloved brother, Rev. Thomas Bowman, D.D., President of the Indiana Asbury University, to bear this letter to you, and to convey to you more particularly our views and greetings.

Signed for the Conference,

T. A. MORRIS, President,

ADDRESS

OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1865

TO THE NEXT

GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF AMERICA.

Reverend and very dear Brethren,

Grateful as it is at all times to address you, and to renew the pledges of our fraternal affection, we cannot but feel a peculiar pleasure on the present occasion, when we are especially called to rejoice in your joy, and to congratulate you on the wonderful interposition of God's good providence in behalf of your country and yourselves.

From the ravages and wastes of war, under which the United States have so severely suffered, you are now delivered by the return of peace. Our sympathies were with you in all that you endured, and they are now with you in the blessings which you are again permitted to share. May the God of peace sanctify the gift which He has thus restored to you, and cause the several parts of your favoured land to flourish in renovated prosperity, while new facilities are supplied to yourselves for the prosecution of your holy Christian enterprises!

Be assured that we warmly and fully enter into your sentiments of gratitude to Almighty God for the attainment of an object which you have sought with patient constancy, amidst difficulties and discouragements of no common kind, and in which you have always had our sincere concurrence,—the abolition of slavery. Marvellously has this great work been wrought, and by agencies which man's sagacity could not have foreseen.

But God reigns in the whirlwind and the storm; His path is in the deep waters. New obligations rest on you, dear brethren, in consequence of this changed state of things; nor can we for a moment doubt that you will gladly avail yourselves of the opportunities so largely placed within your reach to promote the spiritual and moral improvement of the coloured race, millions of whom, held so long in slavery, are now made free. Our hope is that from these, claimants beyond ordinary measure on our best Christian charities, you will gather many who will be your "joy and crown of rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus."

To us, as to yourselves, it is matter of thankful surprise that, in the midst of events which for four years have disturbed the several classes of society, and caused a diminution of your numbers, you have been strengthened to pursue your course with unfaltering zeal and diligence; that, in spite of circumstances the most adverse, you have maintained your pecuniary liberalities in support of religious and charitable claims, and have multiplied churches and seminaries of learning, providing in these, as in other ways, for the further extension of the work which God has confided to your care; and that you have continued to enlarge your Missionary operations until, in compass and degree, they have passed far beyond all former parallel. In your present improved position, and by richer visitations of God's Holy Spirit, without whose grace we feel, with yourselves, that all plans and efforts are vain, we trust that you will soon see yet better days,—above all, in the spread of that living and practical Christianity to which you and we are solemnly pledged to devote our most wakeful energies.

Prospects open before you which invite you onward, and yet onward, in the service of your Lord and ours,—prospects in your own country, with its great extent, its growing population, and its extraordinary capabilities; and prospects also in the several Foreign Stations, nearer and more remote, which your agents have already so successfully occupied. The field expands itself before you; and, under your diligent culture, it will, as we earnestly anticipate, yield a plentiful harvest for the heavenly garner. We cannot but regard it as a source of peculiar satisfaction that the pure doctrines which have been transmitted to us by our fathers, accompanied by the godly ecclesiastical discipline to which we are mutually pledged, are so widely diffused by your instrumentality. And may "the Lord God of our fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as He hath promised you!"

It is with a devout acknowledgment of God's mercy to ourselves that we can report the peace which we enjoy in these our borders, and the manifold helps which are afforded us for carrying out our Christian schemes and purposes. But we lament that the increase to the members of our Society is comparatively small; and we are also sensible of the need we have that the spiritual work in many of our Societies should be deepened and matured. What we want,—and what all other churches want,—is a more plentiful effusion of grace from the Holy Spirit, in whom we believe as "the Lord and Giver of life." For this we would unite in fervent and faithful prayer, patiently awaiting the time when "showers of blessings" shall descend on every portion of the Lord's heritage committed to our charge. And may the same precious donative be conferred on all the church and the "whole world of mankind," ushering in the day which we long to see, when all nations shall become subject to the sway of Christ!

Your excellent and honoured representative, the Rev. Bishop Janes, has been welcomed among us with the highest regard, for your sake and for his own. He has passed in and out with us, a brother beloved; his discourses and addresses have made a deep and powerful impression; and his truly Christian tone of feeling has won for him the affectionate esteem of all who have had the advantage of intercourse with him. He carries with him our best wishes and prayers, intermingled with most happy memories. It would have been gratifying to hail the Rev. Dr. Bowman also; and we regret that he has been prevented by family affliction from associating himself with us.

Mournful emotions arise on your reference to our late lamented President, the Rev. William L. Thornton, A.M., who had so much hallowed delight in his visit to you as our Representative. At the time when he held the most exalted post among us, and when he was in the midst of important and valued services, it pleased God, by a sudden and unexpected summons, to call him to Himself. But the work of his day is done; he is at rest, honoured, we doubt not, in the presence of the Lord.

We sincerely desire to cultivate a close brotherly fellowship with you, by a regular interchange of Representatives and letters, and ask for you and ourselves that blessing which the Lord hath commanded on His Sion, "even life for evermore."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

WILLIAM SHAW, President.
JOHN FARRAR, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1864

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CONFERENCE IN CANADA, 1864.

VERY DEAR BRETHREN,

YOUR affectionate and cheerful Address has been received by us with much thankfulness. It was heard by the Conference, and a large assembly of our people, with deep interest. Our honoured President—who is also yours—has further confirmed your encouraging report by his testimony to the high tone of Christian feeling manifested in your late Conference; to the measure of enlargement and prosperity which crowns your labours; and to the bright future, both as to your Home and your Missionary work, which seems to open before you. May the effectual blessing of the Head of the church rest upon every branch of your organization! While your main dependence must be upon Him, you may rely upon our readiness to afford the assistance which you claim.

We deplore, with you, the comparative absence of those richer effusions of the Holy Spirit on which the increase of our numbers depends. The labours of Methodism in Great Britain, and throughout the world, have not resulted, during the past year, in the usual numerical accessions. This fact has been made the subject of earnest prayer and solemn conversation in our present Conference. We have searchingly inquired into every direct or indirect cause, among ourselves, which might have contributed to thwart our efforts and cross our desires. The result has been, with us, as with you, a determination to consecrate ourselves more fully to the service of the Redeemer, in the ministry of His Gospel; and to concentrate our energies more prayerfully and steadily on the extension of His kingdom. You will join us in fervent hope that the coming year may be so abundantly blessed from on high, that the depression of the present year may not be remembered.

Meanwhile, we are not unmindful of the many reasons which we have for thankfulness. As it regards what may be called material prosperity, we have not only no cause to complain, but, on the contrary, every reason to rejoice. We have been able to disencumber our trust-property of a large amount of debt; and chapels and schools have been erected in almost every part of the Connexion. Our Educational work advances, notwithstanding many impediments. Above all, our Missionary cause, the glory of Methodism, has kept on its steady course. How entirely it commands the confidence, and engages the heart, of our people, has been proved by the offering of nearly £200,000 to the Jubilee celebration. For your own contribution to this object we heartily thank you; and you will, doubtless, think we do no more than right by returning for your own service what you have sent to the General Fund.

In all our thoughts of you, dear brethren, we remember the blessed contrast between your condition and that of the neighbouring States, desolated by war in its most unnatural form. We rely on your patriotism, even as we are confident of our own; and are sure that you need no request of ours to continue your prayers for the pacification of America, the extinction of slavery, and the free course of the Gospel on your continent.

We are, of course, gratified to hear, as we fully expected, of the blessing which it has pleased God to confer upon you through the presence of our beloved President, the Rev. William L. Thornton, M.A. It is not in our power to send you another visiter for the next year; but we cordially confirm your nomination of the Rev. Richard Jones as your President, and of the Rev. Asahel Hurlburt as Co-Delegate.

Finally, we commend you, your families, your Societies, your work at home and abroad, your Conference, to the supreme benediction of our common Lord, until we next interchange our friendly communications.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN FARRAR, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA, 1865,

IN CONNEXION WITH THE BRITISH CONFERENCE,

TO THE

CONFERENCE IN ENGLAND, 1865.

Reverend Fathers and Brethren,

Your parental Annual Address has been received and read with peculiar interest. The grief and sympathy felt throughout the parent Wesleyan body in Great Britain and Ireland at the sudden removal of your and our honoured President, the Rev. W. L. Thornton, have been felt with scarcely less intensity by our ministers and people in Canada, to whom Mr. Thornton had endeared himself by his powerful ministrations, his deep piety, his affectionate courtesy, and his practical counsels. The sweet and hallowed savour of his brief visit and labours among us can never be effaced from our grateful recollection. It will be our aim, as it is our earnest prayer, to imitate his holy example, and share his glorious reward, while we have implored the Divine consolations in behalf of his bereaved family and colleagues in the service of the church.

During the past year, notwithstanding the depression of commerce and trade on account of three years' failure of crops, financial derangements, and losses by emigration occasioned by the American Civil War, we have been enabled, by the pious co-operation and liberality of our people, to sustain all our institutions, to erect a large number of commodious places of worship, and to report a small numerical increase in our membership. There is peace throughout all our Societies, and in many of them there are revivals of religion. There is an encouraging progress of the work in British Columbia and Vancouver's-Island; while in Hudson's-Bay Territory the labours of our Missionaries have been crowned by the conversion of upwards of two hundred of the heathen and degraded Indians, to whom the Gospel has come in power, in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance, and who have turned from dumb idols to serve the true and living God.

Our home work, is spread over a comparatively new and sparsely-settled territory, much larger than that of Great Britain and Ireland. To provide its numerous poor and new as well as old settlements, with the means of salvation, requires great exertions and labours on the part of our people and ministry. This work, however, we have all along sustained without any extraneous assistance. We have also supplied men, and contributed largely to provide means, for the work in Hudson's-Bay Territory and British Columbia, the Missions to which were undertaken in connexion with the parent body, and with the assurance of its aid; without the continuance of which we are utterly unable to sustain them, much less meet the new and pressing demands for their extension.

It will afford us great pleasure, and we doubt not great profit, if you can appoint one of your own body as our President, to preside at the next Annual Meeting of our Conference, to be held in Montreal; but in the event of your being unable to do so, which we trust will not be the case, it may be advisable for us to elect one from among ourselves, as provided for by the Articles of Union. With much cordiality we nominate for your approval the Rev. Wellington Jeffers, D.D., Co-Delegate.

We have pleasure in again bearing testimony to the faithful and efficient labours of the Rev. Dr. Wood, as General Superintendent of Missions; and hope you will still continue him in the office which he has so long and ably filled.

During the present session we have set apart, by ordination to the work of the ministry, eighteen young men, who have passed their four years' trial with much credit and usefulness. In the literary preparation of young men for the full work of the ministry, our University College renders the most important service; while it continues, with unabated success and usefulness, in imparting a superior Christian education to hundreds of youth of our congregations.

Our Female College at Hamilton is doing a great and good work in educating, upon Christian and Wesleyan principles, large numbers of the daughters of our people and friends.

Our session has been one of great harmony and high spirituality, the interest of which has been largely increased by communications and ministrations of venerable representatives from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. We go forth to our appointed fields of labour, seeking a more copious baptism than ever of the Holy Spirit; resolved, after the example and in the spirit of our Divine Master, to go about doing good, and to spend and be spent in feeding the church of God, and in extending its victories on every side. In this consecration and work we solicit, as we are sure we shall have, an interest in your prayers and supplications.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan-Methodist Church in Canada,

RICHARD JONES, President,
JOHN HUNT, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1864

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE, 1864.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

Your Address, sent by the hands of your much-esteemed President, has caused us mingled feelings of pleasure and pain. We sorrow with you, and we rejoice with you. We know how difficult and delicate is the position which the great Head of the church has allotted you; we are not unacquainted with the embarrassments in which, of late years, your evangelical labours have been involved; and you have our warm sympathy and earnest prayers, in all the trial and perplexity of which you speak, as at present burdening and depressing you. At the same time we thank God, on your behalf, for the manifest blessing which, during the past year, as through many preceding ones, has rewarded your Christian faith and toil. It is not a little thing, that, in the face of so numerous hindrances, you are able to report the multiplication of your chapels, the increase of the aggregate number of your church-members, the visible strengthening of your pulpit and pastoral influence over the young, and the general enlargement of your sphere of aggressive action in the service of Christ. In all this we recognise the Lord's hand working with you, and confirming the Word with signs following: and we join our prayers with yours, and magnify the grace which thus plainly evinces its power to subdue all things to itself.

We deeply lament the financial pressure under which you are suffering; and our feeling is the stronger, because through the limited nature of our resources, and the multitude and weightiness of other claims upon them, it is impossible to render you that large and effectual help which your case requires. So far as this evil depends upon causes within your own control, we doubt not you will continue to exercise the discretion and firmness which have already prevented its becoming still more serious; while, in regard to such portion of it as is purely providential, or springs out of circumstances which time alone can be expected to alter, we have confidence in you, dear brethren, that you will still bear the burden of the Lord, in the spirit of those ancient confessors and saints among whose graves you are called to testify in His name. May God, even our Father, sustain you under all personal privation and hardship! May His good Spirit endue you yet more abundantly with holy prudence and patience, in the feeding of His redeemed flock! May you have grace, if the will of God be so, to do that most bitter of all duties of the ministry,—the leaving of the harvest ungathered, because the means of gathering it are wanting! And, with all, and above all, may the strong arm of the Lord be speedily revealed among you in the breaking down of the barriers which now obstruct your path, and in giving into your hands on every side, a people prepared of Himself both to receive and to further the message of His Gospel!

Of one thing we are fully persuaded, your faithful witness to the truth, and your zealous Missionary ministry, were never more peremptorily needed on the field of your labour than at present. God has set you as a light in a dark place; and this is the very last time in which your shining may be withheld or suffered to grow dim. You are not the sole depositaries and vehicles of a living Christianity in France and Switzerland: yet there are none upon which we can rely with so unqualified a confidence, or more buoyant hope. You know whom you have believed, and are therefore mighty to wrestle with the "science, falsely so called," which now threatens the faith of many. You preach Him who will be worshipped in Spirit and in truth; and can therefore make no terms with the ritualism which transmutes His glory into the substance of earth and of man. You represent, and by God's grace wield, those supernatural forces which once turned the world upside down, and which will, in due time, convert it into the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. Be strong, therefore, dear brethren, and of good courage; and God will comfort your hearts, and yet make His glory to appear amongst you, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. To His love and protection we commend both you and the people of your charge. We heartily respond to your application in reference to your Representative, the Rev. James Hocart, and re-appoint him as President of your Conference for the coming year. Grace, mercy, and peace be with him, and with you, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN FARRAR, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1865,

IN CONNEXION WITH THE BRITISH CONFERENCE,

TO THE

CONFERENCE IN ENGLAND.

(TRANSLATION.)

BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

WE gratefully acknowledge the warm expressions of affection, sympathy, and encouragement, contained in your Address; and we embrace with joy the opportunity of saluting you collectively in your Annual Assembly, and of expressing to you the feelings of esteem, and gratitude, and love, by which we are animated.

We believe that the deep interest which you have ever taken in the trials, the reverses, and the successes of Methodism in France, has not in the least diminished. Undiscouraged by its comparatively small success hitherto, you look forward, in the assurance of faith, and in the patience of hope, to a time when, in this country also, the "little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation."

We share in that expectation. Our difficulties abound; but we are cheered by many signs of approaching success. In the South of France our influence and our sphere of operations are extending in a remarkable manner. Formerly a strong prejudice against us existed in the Protestant part of the community. That prejudice is fast disappearing from the minds of many. Because we are faithful to the doctrines of the word of God in these days, when so many pervert or deny them, those who prefer the unadulterated Gospel to the uncertainties of liberalism, and to the negations of rationalism, seek, in connection with Methodism, what they have ceased to find in the church of their fathers,—the clear and unhesitating enunciation of those truths which, from the beginning, have been made the power of God unto salvation to all those that believe. The affluence of hearers to our ministry creates the necessity for building new chapels, or enlarging those already built. In several places this work has been commenced, and in others plans are being matured, which will be put into execution as early as possible.

Our success has not been confined to localities where Protestantism existed previous to the introduction of Methodism. In two of our Circuits, the efforts made to spread the Gospel among the Roman Catholics have been greatly blessed. A large number of Roman Catholic children have been gathered into our Sabbath-schools, and several persons have been converted to God.

In Paris, we have been guided by the providence of God to hold regular public services in a part of that city, in which we are the only labourers in the field. The blessing of God evidently rests upon us in this new undertaking. The room in which our services are held has become quite insufficient to accommodate those who desire to attend them. A day-school and a Sabbath-school have been opened, and are prospering. If we had the means of erecting immediately a suitable building, there is every probability that we should soon have a congregation as large as that which worships in the Rue Roquépine.

The Lord has also heard our prayer that He would send forth labourers into His harvest. He has raised up candidates for the ministry in sufficient numbers for the present demands of our work. This year, two have been received on probation, and appointed to Circuits. And, with prayer and thanksgiving, we have ordained to the office of the ministry a faithful and devoted brother, whose labours, during the four years of his probation, have been crowned by the Holy Spirit with considerable success. The Lord has thus supplied the wants of His church: for, during the past year, after a brief illness, one of our elder brethren, the Rev. Louis Martin, was bidden by the Great Master to rest from his labours.

On examining the returns from the different Circuits, we find that during the year there has been an increase of fifty-two members, sixteen Sunday-school teachers, and one hundred and five Sunday-scholars.

Our financial embarrassments are the greatest obstacle, at the present time, to the consolidation and extension of our work. We are thankful to say that we meet with fewer difficulties in obtaining authorizations to assemble for public worship; so that, if we had sufficient pecuniary resources, we might easily increase the number of our Stations. But, under present circumstances, we are compelled to act with the most rigorous economy, in order to maintain possession of the ground which we now occupy. It has pleased God to suffer the silk-growing provinces of this country to be afflicted, for several years, with the failure of their crops. The present year is the most disastrous of all. The result of this accumulation of losses is that wealthy proprietors are reduced almost to indigence, and the poor are in a state of great destitution. As two or three of our most important Circuits are situated in the provinces which have suffered from this calamity, our receipts have been greatly reduced by it.

Yet, though our financial embarrassments are an obstacle of growing magnitude to the extension of our work, we do not despair. We commend our cause to God in earnest prayer; and, while waiting for help from Him, we endeavour to direct our attention to whatever may increase our efficiency as a Church. Foremost among the means to be employed for attaining this object, we place the elevation of the standard of our ministry. While we believe that sound conversion and fervent piety are the essential elements of true ministerial success, we are increasingly convinced of the importance of providing for this country a well-educated and trained ministry. We therefore place the majority of those young men, who are likely to become candidates for our work, in the Institution at Lausanne. A few are placed under the care of senior ministers, who superintend their studies, and employ them to some extent in Circuit work. A course of reading and study has also been appointed by the Conference, on every part of which the Preachers on Trial are carefully examined during the four years of probation. May sanctified knowledge, hallowed wisdom, glowing piety, and the varied gifts of the Holy Ghost render our rising ministry the glory of the churches and of Christ!

In devout submission to Divine wisdom, we have mourned with you the mysterious removal of your honoured President. Your loss is ours; for we had discerned in Mr. Thornton a truly catholic spirit, a persevering interest in the spread of the Redeemer's kingdom, and especially a zeal which was evinced by the study of the religious state and claims of the European Continent. May the Lord comfort the afflicted, and continue to you and to us a holy succession of men to fulfil the ministry of the truth!

Our esteemed President, the Rev. James Hocart, is our Representative for the present year to your Annual Assembly. We earnestly request his appointment as our President for the ensuing year.

And now, honoured fathers and brethren, we entreat the continuance of your counsels, your sympathies, and your prayers. And may the Lord grant unto you, in your approaching Conference, the presence and power of his Holy Spirit, and favour all your churches with a growing prosperity!

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

PETER LUCAS, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1864

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE AUSTRALASIAN CONFERENCE, 1864.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

Most cordially do we reciprocate all your expressions of Christian affection. We are indeed one, in the sacred bonds of love toward our God and Saviour, in the unity of an unchanging faith, and in the hope that maketh not ashamed.

While your country is the field of commercial enterprise and industry; while enterprise and industry receive a constant impulse to exertion from the rapid increase of wealth; while your rising populations multiply, and are constantly recruited by immigration from the United Kingdom, and from continental Europe and the East, we feel assured that the people of your charge are awake to the duties which follow the acquisition of wealth, and that you faithfully teach them the necessity of constant watchfulness, to counteract the tendency to worldliness in a state of society where every energy is taxed in opening up and working new fields of labour.

As you intend to consecrate a portion of this wealth on occasion of the Jubilee of the Australian Mission, you may be encouraged by knowing that the contributions given or promised to our Jubilee Fund have now advanced beyond £190,000. We anticipate the erection of a Missionary College, and the accomplishment of some other objects of great public importance, as the results of this effort; and great will be our satisfaction, if, under the Divine blessing, you succeed in rearing a college for candidates for the holy ministry, where they may be trained in sound learning, especially in theology and biblical science, and prepared for the due performance of pastoral duties. No monument of thankfulness to God for the founding of Wesleyan Methodism in Australia could be more suitable than an institution so directly calculated to impart stability to your church, and to promote its extension over the vast regions within which you have begun your sacred toil.

At the same time that we render fervent thanksgiving to Him from whom proceeds every good and every perfect gift, for the pecuniary contributions which He has permitted to be cast into His treasury, we are deeply humbled that at this Conference there is not found an increase of numbers in our Circuits. May it please God so to bless you, that the coming year may be a period of spiritual awakening and revival, with a large ingathering of converted sinners, and a correspondent building up of believers in their most holy faith!

Most sincerely do we join you in deploring the devastations of war in New-Zealand, and in regret that occasion should have occurred for the employment of military force in that colony. May it please God to hasten the establishment of peace and confidence, and to show the Maoris that the Government and people of this Christian country lament the sacrifice of life which has taken place, and desire the preservation of the Maori race, to enjoy with us the highest blessings of Christianity, and Christian civilization! We also mark with gratitude the fact, which you mention, that every one of your Native Teachers has remained loyal to our beloved Queen.

But we must beg it to be remembered, that the life of so many of our troops has been sacrificed in order to preserve to the Crown a portion of the British empire; and we cannot refrain from commending to your sympathy those military men who may be on service in the territories under the eye of the Australian Conference. Especially let every Wesleyan soldier find that he has a friend wherever there exists a member or Minister of His church.

We have delighted to welcome our valued friend and brother, the Rev. William Butters, as your Representative; and have listened to his encouraging statements of your prosperity, and of your prospects, with thankfulness to God.

We cordially approve your appointment of the Rev. Stephen Rabone as the successor of the Rev. John Eggleston in the office of Missionary Secretary; and have appointed the Rev. James S. Waugh to be the President of your Conference next year. May it please the Divine Head of the church to crown your assembly with His richest blessing!

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN FARRAR, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH, 1865,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1865.

Reverend and dear Fathers and Brethren,

We again address you from our Annual Conference. The number of Ministers now assembled is larger than on any former occasion. From year to year the Lord adds "faithful men" unto our order. At this Conference we have admitted into full connexion with us seven young Ministers, whose term of probation was satisfactorily fulfilled. We have also accepted sixteen probationers for our work, all of whom were well recommended from the several Districts to which they belonged. "And yet there is room." Our sphere of usefulness is still enlarging. Fields of labour are opening, which we are unable to occupy, because "the labourers are few."

You will rejoice with us to hear that God has favoured our Zion with prosperity. Not only have our material resources been increased, new churches of a substantial character built, and additional Circuits created, but we are cheered by a large accession to our church-membership. Our schedules show a net increase of 2,947 members, and 8,365 on trial.

As with you, so also with us, the Jubilee year has called forth the Christian liberality of our people, who are disposed to "abound in this grace also." The sums of money given and promised, for the several objects proposed, are found to exceed £18,000. The Jubilee meetings, which were held during the past year, awakened in the hearts of thousands feelings of hallowed joy, and aspirations after noble purposes. We cordially agree with you respecting the importance of a Theological College for the better training of the candidates for our ministry; and when the perplexing question of the most eligible position for such an institution can be decided, we hope to possess this great advantage.

Our harmony as a Conference is unbroken. We are as firmly resolved as ever to abide by the well-tried principles of our church polity, and to preach the good old Methodist doctrine. For the health and vigour we generally enjoy we thank God; still more for the grace that is given unto us. The presence of the Lord Jesus is with us. But we are not without a shade of sadness. We have this year wept over the graves of three beloved brethren, who have been called to their reward. Two of these were eminent among us: the Rev. Nathaniel Turner, for his long, laborious, and faithful services; and the Rev. John Allen Manton, who for many years, with equal dignity and efficiency, sustained high official positions in Australasian Methodism. If their obituary notices can be inserted by your sanction in the Minutes of your Conference, it will be very gratifying to us. Stimulated by their example, and admonished by their death, we determine, by God's grace, to give ourselves anew to our holy work.

For your kindness in complying with our request for some young Preachers for New-Zealand, we are very thankful. We believe that by well sustaining our cause at the present crisis, we shall secure the future extension of the Methodist Church in that country. You will be glad to learn that we have taken measures at this Conference for reducing the annual grant from the Missionary Committee to the New-Zealand Districts, while we are adding to the number of the Ministers. According to the financial plan now adopted, in a few years New-Zealand will cease to draw any aid from the Mission-Fund. We regret to inform you that peaceable relations have not yet been established between the Maori insurgents and the Colonial Government. Our New-Zealand brethren continue, as they always have done, to use their influence on the behalf of law, order, and peace; and we sincerely hope that the Maori tribes still engaged in deadly contest, may yield to better counsels and save themselves from destruction. Having, at present, no access to those natives that are in arms against imperial authority, our brethren are not unmindful of the claims of our brave soldiers, and do all they can to promote their spiritual well-being.

We shall have to ask you to send help to our devoted Missionaries in the South-Sea Islands. Those Missions are the glory of our Church. Our brethren fail under the effects of a tropical climate. Four of them have been compelled to return to the colonies this last year, and others will be under the same necessity within a short time. The vacancies thus left cannot be supplied from the colonial churches. We, therefore, beg you to seek out a few gifted young men, full of Missionary zeal, and send them to us to be engaged in the Fiji and Friendly Isles.

We are grateful to you for the appointment of the Rev. James S. Waugh to be our President. He fulfils the high expectations we had formed of his qualifications for this office. The ability, fidelity, and courtesy with which he discharges the duties of the Chair of the Conference, command our hearty approbation. All the interests of our connexional Church will, we are persuaded, be wisely guarded by him. We now nominate the Rev. William A. Quick for your approval as the President of the Conference which is to be held in Adelaide in January, 1866. This appointment will give us great satisfaction, and as heretofore, so now also, we hope you will oblige us by accepting our nomination.

The Rev. Daniel J. Draper has our ready consent for him to visit the land of our fathers. By our unanimous wish he is commended to you as our Representative in your next Conference. You need not to be informed of his valuable services to us; his intimate knowledge of our Connexion; or the high esteem and confidence in which he is held. We believe that from you he will receive a most affectionate welcome. He will be followed by our prayers, that he may return to us in health, and in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

Accept, dear Fathers and Brethren, our filial and fraternal assurances of our unwavering attachment to you. We are united by endearing bonds. The important trust you have committed to our hands we will faithfully maintain. And may God bestow, both on you and on ourselves, "showers of blessings!"

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY H. GAUD, Secretary.

Sydney, New South Wales,

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1864

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH IN EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA, 1864.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

The safe return of your President, now ours also,—the cordial welcome which he received among you,—and the knowledge which we have gained through his communications, and your own most welcome address, of your continued peace and prosperity,—have been to us the occasion of unfeigned joy, and of devout thanksgiving to God. We are glad to find that God raises up Ministers of the Gospel of Christ from among your own converts; and that, under the care of Dr. De Wolfe, you are able so efficiently to provide for their ministerial training. We are ourselves more than ever anxious to provide means whereby all who enter our ministry may receive that complete preparation for it, which the circumstances of these times so urgently demand.

We are happy, also, to observe, that you attach due importance to the godly training of your youth, and to the diffusion of a truly Christian literature throughout the sphere of your labours. We are impressed with the conviction, which you doubtless share, that upon the zeal and fidelity with which you use every available means to spread the Gospel of Christ, must depend the religious and political character of the whole future of the populations among whom you labour. Every true conversion now witnessed by you will probably reproduce itself in thousands of instances during ages to come; and the godliness which you, by God's blessing, promote, can alone give stability and peace to the nations which are to fill your land.

We are thankful to inform you, that throughout our own beloved country we have enjoyed great peace in all the churches of our communion, and have had great joy in the celebration of our Missionary Jubilee. We are bound to give thanks always to God that the fruit of the Spirit has been made manifest in the abundant liberality of His servants, who have willingly offered of their substance for the furtherance of the Gospel of Christ.

Already a sum exceeding £190,000 has been furnished for Missionary objects, whilst the ordinary income of the Missionary Society has not suffered. Our gratitude for this grace bestowed on the churches has been deepened by witnessing the cheerfulness, the humility, the love, the brotherly kindness, by which these free-will offerings have been accompanied. We said constantly, and will ever say, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name give glory, for Thy mercy, and for Thy truth's sake."

Your own willing and hearty participation in this Jubilee gives us special joy. Remembering as we do that some of our first Missionaries were employed in your provinces, we rejoice with you that you are able now to commemorate so large and blessed a result of those early labours.

We regret that we cannot report to you the same measure of spiritual prosperity that has marked some former years of our history. We have had large additions to our churches, and have ascertained that nearly fifty thousand persons have been received as members on trial during the past year; but this large number has been more than counterbalanced by deaths, emigrations, and especially by the withdrawal of those who for a longer or shorter time had been joined with us in Christian fellowship: so that we have to record a net decrease on the year of thirty-six members.

These facts have caused us deep sorrow of heart and unfeigned humiliation before God. But, though humbled, we are not discouraged. We do not for a moment ask, "Is the Lord among us, or not?" We should be very blameworthy did we not thankfully acknowledge the many tokens which we have had of the Lord's presence and power in the midst of His people. We encourage ourselves, and would, dear brethren, encourage you, by the recollection that, whatever the hindrances which obstruct our work, the sources of our prosperity are always near and accessible. We know that the inspired Scriptures have lost not a tittle of their precious treasure of saving truth, and, in our eyes at least, nothing of their authority or sacredness. We know that the sacrifice of our Saviour Christ is as efficacious, and His intercession as prevailing, as when He at the first "sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;" and that the Divine Spirit retains all that fulness of convincing and renewing power which He possessed on the day of the first Christian Pentecost. We are not straitened in God, but we have been straitened by the littleness of our own faith. But now, beloved brethren, we invite you to join us in drawing nigh to the throne of grace with boldness. Let us humbly and believingly claim all that we need, for it is already ours in Christ. Who can doubt the conclusion of the Apostle?—"He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" All things are ours, in the merciful provision of them, because we ourselves are Christ's; and all are ours in actual possession, when the strength of our faith accords with the exceeding greatness of the promises. May the God of all grace grant to you and to us, for the sake of His well-beloved Son, all the fulness of the Spirit! So shall God "cause us always to triumph in Christ, and make manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place."

In accordance with your own nomination, we have appointed the Rev. John M'Murray as your President, and the Rev. Edmund Botterell as Co-Delegate. From the Rev. John Lathern, whom we have been glad to see among us, as well as from our printed Minutes, you will receive further information relative to the various departments of the work of God carried on by us in this country.

With deep and growing interest in your work, and with sincere brotherly affection, we commend you to the care and blessing of "Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

WILLIAM L. THORNTON, President,
JOHN FARRAR, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA, 1865,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1865.

Reverend and beloved Fathers and Brethren,

It becomes again our delightful duty to convey to you an expression of the respect and love we ever feel towards the Parent Conference.

Your very welcome Address contained references which awaken our deepest sympathy, and confirm our hope for the future of the Methodist Connexion. To hear of the peace which your churches enjoy; the blessed results of your Jubilee Celebration; and the unimpaired state of the funds of the Missionary Society, is to us a subject of devout gratulation. We are truly glad to learn that your people feel an increasing interest in your noble institutions, and in the great providential work which has been assigned to you among the thousands of God's Israel.

Your success in the foreign field, the preservation of the lives of those who have gone from your shores to preach the word in inhospitable climes, the Missionary spirit amongst you, as evinced by the readiness with which men and money, learning, genius, and piety, are laid upon the altar of Home and Foreign Missions, convince us that the Lord is at your right hand, leading you on to glorious victory; and we fervently pray that the time may never come when, either in Britain or in her Colonies, our church shall cease to feel an interest in the wants and woes of human kind.

While we share in your joys, permit us, as a part of the great Connexion bereaved by the lamented decease of your late President,—yours and ours,—to mingle our tears with yours, while we recall an event so dark in mystery, so sad in its results, by which, at one stroke, three Conferences were deprived of their President, accomplished, pious counsellor, and head. His short sojourn with us was not too brief to endear him to us all. His quenchless zeal, his consummate abilities, his unfeigned affection and urbanity, will long be remembered by us. We bow to the will of God; but we bow in sorrow, while we sing in faith,—

"God is His own Interpreter,
And He will make it plain."

Amidst the prevailing errors of the day, we rejoice to find Methodism everywhere the uncompromising witness to the "faith once delivered to the saints," and still maintaining testimony to the most thorough faith in Revelation, with the utmost catholicity of spirit to all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. The efforts made to disparage the truths which our founder considered the glory of the New Testament, have not made us falter for a moment in our attachment to the old soul-saving doctrines of Methodism. We are "not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ."

We have been favoured with outpourings of the Spirit in many places during the past year, and signs and wonders have followed. From the promising appearances during the greater part of the year, we were led to entertain hopes of an increase to our numbers; but we are constrained to report a decrease of ninety-seven members. A prayerful and searching inquiry has been instituted into the cause of this unhappy result; and we are more than ever determined, with God's help, to lay ourselves out for usefulness in winning souls, and endeavouring to spread scriptural holiness throughout the land.

The Jubilee Celebration amongst us has been a season of hallowed joy and thanksgiving. Owing to a general commercial depression, the time seemed inauspicious; but when the movement was once inaugurated, many felt their hearts moved to share in the privileges and responsibilities of this auspicious event. The amount of contributions, as promised, has reached the sum of sixteen thousand dollars, or about three thousand two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, of which a small part has been received. This, although a small sum when placed in contrast with that which has been raised amongst you, we have the pleasure of knowing to be an expression of the same feeling which prompted your more munificent offering. We have followed you, not with equal steps, but with the same spirit of gratitude to God for Wesleyan Missions.

Our Educational Institutions, under the care of the Rev. Dr. Pickard, continue to prosper, and to command a large share of public patronage. The College promises well; and we are pleased to observe that it has already furnished a small supply of undergraduates for the ministry. We feel more than ever that the future of Methodism is closely connected with these places of learning, which the good providence of God has given to us, and which, with His blessing, we are determined to sustain. With yourselves we see the necessity of not only a converted, but also an educated ministry.

One of our aged Supernumeraries, the Rev. John Marshall, a man eminent for piety and usefulness, has passed away during the year. A gracious end crowned a holy life.

We regret that the Rev. John Brewster leaves Eastern British America, and returns to his native land. We rejoice that his ministry has been the savour of life to hundreds in this country. His disposition, talents, and zeal, have made him greatly beloved and respected. We are glad that he came amongst us; and now that he must leave this Conference, we commend him and his family to your Christian sympathy, hoping that he may have before him a career of increasing usefulness and happiness in the church of God.

For the first time we have met in Conference in this town. Under the able presidency of the Rev. John M'Murray, our session has been one of unbroken harmony. A deep spiritual influence has pervaded our assemblies; and we shall return to our different spheres of labour under the happy conviction, that, best of all, the Lord was with us.

We request the Revs. W. B. Boyce and John Brewster to act as our representatives in the British Conference. With much cordiality we recommend the Rev. James England as our President, and the Rev. Ingham Sutcliffe as Co-Delegate for the next year.

Thirteen young men, who have honourably passed through their probation, have been solemnly set apart to the work of the ministry; and the solemnity of their ordination was a season of grace never to be forgotten, giving good promise that the Lord the Spirit had set to the seal of His approval in this act of holy designation.

We now separate, to enter again on the work the Great Master has assigned us; and in the name of the Lord we will set up our banners. The Lord reigneth; He maketh wars to cease; His blessing is upon His people. "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

R. ALDER TEMPLE, Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, WEDNESDAY, JULY 26TH, 1865.

The Rev. Dr. Osborn, President of the Conference, in the Chair.

I. Moved by the Rev. W. Arthur, A.M.; seconded by Mr. George Knowles, of Bolton; supported by Mr. Panton, of Sunderland:

That, regarding the Mission-work of this Society, and of the Affiliated Conferences, as a sacred trust for the benefit of mankind and the glory of Christ, this Meeting rejoices in its continuance and success, and commends it to the liberal support and earnest prayers of the Methodist people, and the friends of Missions, throughout the world. This Meeting also commends to the affectionate sympathy of the Conference, and the Connexion at large, other labourers in the Mission-field; those especially who are seeking the conversion of God's ancient people, the Jews; those also who are ministering to the temporal and spiritual wants of the recently freed population of the Southern States of America; and the Missionaries of the Loyalty Islands in the South Seas, who, with their people, are enduring severe and cruel persecutions at the hands of the local authorities.

II. Moved by the Rev. R. S. Hardy, from Ceylon; seconded by Mr. E. Healey, of Liverpool; supported by Mr. Osborn, of Rochester:

That the new Mission in Italy, and the augmentation of the Missions in India and China, together with the new and unexpected exigencies which have arisen in the West Indies and other parts of the field of Missions, having caused a largely-increased expenditure, it becomes a common duty of the Society to provide more liberally for the permanent support and extension of the work; that in this view the help afforded from the Jubilee Fund, by immediate appropriations to some of the Missions, and by reserved funds for the benefit of the entire work, is acknowledged with the utmost thankfulness and satisfaction.

III. Moved by the Rev. Daniel J. Draper, from Australia; seconded by Mr. Holden, M.P.; supported by Mr. Hosken, of Penryn:

That this Committee, in common with the Jubilee Committee, commends to the attention of the subscribers to the Jubilee Fund the desirableness of an early payment of their promised contributions; and at the same time expresses its thankfulness to those liberal friends who have combined to place the Fund in its present gratifying position.

IV. Moved by Mr. S. Turnbull, of Manchester; seconded by Mr. J. H. Swanton, of Skibbereen:

That the cordial thanks of the Conference be given to the donors of the contributions to the Jubilee Fund, who are too numerous to be specified in this Resolution; and that the thanks of the Conference be presented to James Heald, Esq., and to the Rev. John Scott, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Dr. Hoole, the Rev. William B. Boyce, and the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., the General Secretaries; and to the Committee of Management; for their diligent and valuable services to the Society in the course of the year.

AT A MEETING OF THE GENERAL JUBILEE COMMITTEE,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, JULY 22D, 1865;

The Rev. Dr. Osborn in the Chair;

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

I. Moved by James Heald, Esq.; seconded by the Rev. John Scott:

That the plan of appropriation of the Jubilee Fund, presented by the Missionary Committee, as now amended, be accepted and adopted:—

Grant to the Committee of the Theological Institution, in consideration of the appropriation of Premises at Richmond to the Training of Missionary Candidates, (with interest from July, 1864)	£37,500
Grant to be funded, and the annual proceeds applied to meet the expenses of Training Missionary Candidates	£20,000
Grant for the benefit of the Missions in Southern and Western Africa	£5,000
Grant for France, including Chapel and Institution at Lausanne	£7,000
Grant for the benefit of the Missions in the West Indies, and for Chapel-Debt Relief	£30,000
Grant for Italy	£5,000
Grant for India:—Bengal, £5,000; Godavery, £5,000	£10,000
Grant for China:—Hankow, &c.	£5,000
Grant for Supernumeraries, £15,000, for Widows and Orphans, £15,000	£30,000
Payment made to the Missionary Treasurers for balance of 1862, (with interest)	£6,500
Working capital	£24,000
Total	£180,000

To this appropriation must be added £1,500, expended on India and China, in 1864, on the faith of the Jubilee Fund; and Expenses, including printing postage, travelling, &c.

II. Moved by the Rev. W. Arthur, M.A.; seconded by the Rev. Dr. Hannah:

That the Committee acknowledges with gratitude the extent to which the promises of contributions to this Fund have been redeemed by the payments now announced; and entertains the hope that the balances still due will be placed in the Treasurers' hands with the least possible delay; and, with this view, respectfully solicits the kind attention and co-operation of the subscribers, and also of the Ministers and officers in the various Circuits.

III. Moved by the Rev. C. Prest; seconded by Mr. T. P. Bunting.:

That the Treasurers of the Jubilee Fund are authorised to invest in good securities and satisfactory to themselves, for the benefit of the several objects contemplated, the sums which may remain and shall hereafter accrue; after having paid over to the General Institution Fund, and to the Missionary Fund, the amounts already agreed upon.

IV. Moved by Mr. T. P. Bunting; seconded by the Rev. W. Arthur, M.A.; and supported by the Rev. Dr. Hoole:

That the cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to the Rev. J. D. Brocklehurst, the Secretary of the Jubilee-Fund Committee, for his valuable and indefatigable services.

APPENDIX II.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE NEW-KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE-GROVE SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION FUND,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, JULY 26TH, 1865.

PRESENT, the Rev. Dr. Osborn, President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. John Farrar, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy, Treasurer of the Fund; the Rev. Frederick Payne, and the Rev. John Harvard, Secretaries of the Committee; the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., John Bedford, Dr. Jobson, W. W. Stamp, J. Vine, Dr. Waddy, Luke H. Wiseman, F. A. West, J. B. Goodwin, J. Smeeth, W. H. Sargent, J. W. Greeves, William Hurt, James Loutit, and others; Messrs. J. S. Budgett, W. H. Budgett, T. P. Bunting, John Fernley, H. H. Fowler, J. R. Kay, William Pearce, W. Perks, J. Vanner, T. Pethick; and others.

The Reports of the Local Committees and Examiners of the two Schools were read. The report of the literary and religious condition of the two Schools was satisfactory; but sickness having required the suspension of the duties of New-Kingswood School, it was resolved to recommend the Conference to instruct the Local Committee to secure a scientific opinion in relation to the sanitary condition of the premises.

It was reported that the additional allowance recommended to be given for the education of Ministers' daughters had received the cordial sanction of the District-Committees; that there had been a small increase of income from collections and subscriptions, and a considerable decrease in several items of expenditure. So that, notwithstanding the remission of Ministers' subscriptions, and the addition made to the allowances for the education of daughters, the claim upon the Children's Fund for deficient income has been much less than might have been expected.

It was unanimously resolved to recommend that the thanks of the Conference be presented,—

1. To John Irving, Esq., and the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Frederick Payne, and the Rev. John Harvard, the General Secretaries; and to the Local Treasurers, Secretaries, and Committees; for their diligent and efficient attention to the duties of their respective offices during the past year.

2. To the Rev. John Farrar and the Rev. Francis A. West, the Governors of the Schools, and to Mrs. Farrar and Mrs. West, for their kind attention to the comfort of the boys under their care.

3. To the Rev. William F. Moulton, M.A., for the able manner in which he has discharged the duties of Classical and Mathematical Examiner at both New-Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools; and to the gentlemen who have kindly served the institution by examining the Schools in other branches of learning.

APPENDIX III.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW ON CHAPEL AFFAIRS,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, JULY 24TH, 1865.

PRESENT, the Rev. George Osborn, D.D., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. J. Farrar, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. J. Bedford, Secretary of the Committee; the Revs. W. Edwards, and J. V. Shrewsbury, Assistant-Secretaries; the Revs. Dr. Hannah, Dr. Waddy, and Dr. Jobson; the Rev. Messrs. Charles Prest, W. W. Stamp, John Scott, W. Shaw (A), W. Brailsford, J. Clapham, W. Davison, B. Gregory, D. Hay, J. Loutit, Peter M'Owan, W. H. Taylor, J. Tindall, J. J. Topham, W. Wilson (B), T. Woolmer, W. Arthur, J. Grose, J. Hall, S. R. Hall, J. Hargreaves, W. Jessop, R. Ray, J. H. Rigg, George Scott (A), W. Bond, W. Hurt, W. H. Sargent, J. Harvard, W. Jackson (A), J. Talbot, B. Hellier, J. W. Greeves, J. Clulow, G. W. Olver, J. Mayer, B. B. Waddy, J. Geden, J. H. James, A. Macaulay, G. O. Bate, R. Hardy, and other Ministers.

Also, Messrs. J. Fernley and S. R. Healey, Treasurers; Messrs. J. Napier, J. Berrie, S. Turnbull, T. P. Bunting, J. Chubb, T. Davis, W. M'Arthur, Joseph Meek, W. Mewburn, J. S. Budgett, H. H. Fowler, Clement Heeley, F. Heeley, G. Knowles, S. Mease, W. Pearce, W. W. Pocock, T. Walker, M. M. Youll, J. Hartley, T. Groom, P. W. Bunting, T. Twitchell, J. Hatfield, W. Dingley, Thomas Window, S. Budgett, John Osborn, R. Early, J. Farnworth, H. Edmunds, and others.

Of the Report of the Chapel Committee for the year 1864–5, which was read by the Rev. John Bedford, the following is an abstract:—

The Income arising from Collections and Subscriptions amounts to £6,756. 5*s.* 1*d.*, being an increase of £96. 10*s.* 5*d.* over the Income of last year.

I. BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

Applications.

The number of applications sanctioned by the Committee since the Conference of 1864, is 257: namely, 95 chapels, 22 schools, 75 enlargements and alterations, 26 organs, and 39 modifications of cases previously sanctioned. The estimated cost is as follows:—Chapels, £118,090; schools, £17,720; enlargements, £30,443; organs, £3,613; modifications, £14,243: total, £184,109. Of the 95 new chapels, 24 are to be free from debt within a year of the opening, and the remaining 71 within certain specified periods. No debt is to remain on any of the school-property, except in one case, in consideration of special rental. Of the cost of enlargements and alterations, £5,374 is to remain as debt for specified periods. An additional temporary debt of £3,472, in the case of modifications, to be paid off within definite periods, has been allowed. The temporary debt allowed on all the cases sanctioned exceeds $16\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. of the entire outlay, and their estimated income is $33\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. on the outlay, and over 18 per cent. on the remaining debt.

Aid Offered to New Chapels.

In aid of the erections sanctioned during the year, the Committee have promised £1,745 in grants, and £1,925 in loans, contingent on the fulfilment by the trustees of the terms stipulated.

Sales.

Permission has been given during the year to sell 22 chapels, and 8 other trust-properties. Of the chapels 20 are to be re-placed by new erections.

Erections Completed.

The number of cases reported as completed during the year is 222; of which 141 have been completed according to rule; 47 have not yet fulfilled the conditions agreed upon, and 34 are wholly irregular. The total cost of the 141 regular cases has been £123,649, being by far the largest amount ever reported; the temporary debt on the chapels being 13½ per cent. of the entire outlay, and the anticipated income being over 19¾ per cent. on the temporary debt. All the school-rooms completed are free of debt. Of the 47 cases in which the conditions have not been fulfilled, the total cost has been £68,353, and the debt is more than 32 per cent. of the entire outlay. The 34 cases totally irregular have cost £14,527: the remaining debt is over 36⅓ per cent. of the cost, and the anticipated income is small in proportion to the debt. The Committee have reason to fear that some of these cases may occasion painful embarrassments at no distant day. They have received information of other cases besides the above, which have been begun without sanction. The total cost of all the cases reported has been £206,529, and the total debt upon them is £45,762.

Aid Afforded.

The Committee have, during the year, paid out of the Erection Fund £460 in grants, and £550 in loans, in aid of 13 new chapels.

II. RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

(1.) Grants.

For the first time since the formation of the Chapel Fund in 1818 no grants have been requested towards meeting annual deficiencies. Final grants, to the amount of £3,074, have been made to the relief of 45 chapels; to meet which the Trustees have raised £9,652. In 20 of these cases no debt now remains. Other cases will be completed before the close of the year. The Committee have brought this department of their work into such a state that they can safely recommend to the Conference that some portion of the amount hitherto set apart for relief by Grants be applied in aid of new erections.

(2.) Loans.

The number of Loans now in operation is 310. New Loans have been advanced during the year to 32 cases (including 39 Chapels) amounting to £6,130, to meet £8,587 raised by Trustees; on 24 of these Chapels no debt will remain. The sum of £9.816. 18*s.* 1*d.*, including interest on arrears, has been received during the year in Loan instalmemts. The North and South Wales Loan-Committees have advanced £690, to meet £700 raised by Trustees.

III. LOCAL EFFORTS AND SURPLUS INCOME.

The net total of debt paid off by local efforts and surplus income, during the year, is £12,124. 4*s.* 9*d.* Contributions in aid of Circuits have been given by 1,434 Trusts to the amount of £12,542. 11*s.* 6*d.*, being an increase of 134 trusts and £1,330. 13*s.* 8*d.*

SUMMARY OF DEBTS DISCHARGED.

The total amounts of debts which have been either entirely discharged during the year, or for the progressive extinction of which definite arrangements have been made, are as follows:—

	By Grants.	By Loans.	By Local Efforts and Surplus Income.	Totals.
In 1864–5	£12,726	£14,717	£12,124	£39,567
From 1854–64	138,183	247,789	123,459	509,431
Totals in 11 years	£150,909	£262,506	£135,583	£548,998

TOTAL OF ASCERTAINED OUTLAY.

If to the £39,567 applied during the year to the reduction of debts, there be added the £206,529 expended in new erections and enlargements, it will be seen that the aggregate amount expended during the year on Wesleyan Methodist Trust-property, is £246,096. After deducting temporary debt, Loans, and Grants from Connexional Funds, and estimated surplus-proceeds from the sale of old property, the net amount actually raised and paid (including £700 raised to meet Welsh Loans) is £191,904.

IV. LAW RELATING TO CHARITABLE TRUSTS.

A few additional cases of enrolment of deeds under 24 Vict. c. 9, 25 Vict. c. 17, and 27 Vict. c. 13, have been reported to the Committee.

Superintendents and Trustees are reminded that the time for securing the benefits of enrolment under these Acts in reference to Deeds made before the 17th of May, 1861, will expire on the 16th of May, 1866.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT OF TRUST-ESTATES.

The annual examination of the state of Trust-property, and the returns obtained, prove to be of increasing value, especially in the Circuits. Wherever practicable, it is advised that at whatever period of the year the annual audit be held, the accounts should be made up to the 31st of December. The Committee again urge the necessity of adequately insuring all Trust-property.

N.B. Detailed information in reference to each of the foregoing departments may be found in the Report of the Committee, which will be printed in due course.

The following Resolutions were adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Hannah; seconded by Mr. H. H. Fowler, of Wolverhampton; supported by Mr. H. J. Atkinson, Mayor of Hull:

1. That this Meeting rejoices to hear that sanction has been given to the erection, or enlargement, of a great number of Chapels and School-rooms, and to the acquisition of other trust-property during the year, upon conditions which afford good reasons to hope that these undertakings will cause no embarrassment to the Trustees or to the Connexion.

Moved by the Rev. Charles Prest; seconded by Mr. John Chubb, of London:

2. That the extraordinary return of cases completed within the year,—showing an unprecedented amount of outlay and of Christian zeal and liberality,—gives to this Meeting much cause of satisfaction and thankfulness. Nevertheless, the Meeting regrets that cases of irregularity still occur.

Moved by the Rev. William Shaw (A); seconded by Mr. William Dingley, of Sherborne:

3. That this Meeting is gratified to learn that the reduction of debts on Chapel-Trusts by means of Grants, Loans, and surplus Income, is steadily advancing; and hopes that Trustees will continue to promote well-considered efforts having the same important object in view.

Moved by Mr. John Fernley, of Southport; seconded by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; supported by Mr. James S. Budgett, of London:

4. That, in the opinion of this Meeting, the time has arrived when some portion of the Annual Income of the Chapel Fund should be applied to the enlargement of the Erections' Loan Fund, and should thus be permanently used, under the direction of the Committee, in relieving the charge which would otherwise be occasioned by the temporary debt allowed to remain on new Chapels.

Moved by Mr. Thomas Walker, of Cheltenham; seconded by the Rev. George Scott (A):

5. That this Meeting is gratified to learn that the contributions of Trustees towards the support and extension of the work of God in their respective Circuits are steadily increasing; and commends this subject, together with the better support of the Chapel Fund, to the Trustees of all our Chapels. The Meeting also thinks that it would be appropriate and advantageous if more numerous subscriptions were given by Trustees in aid of the Theological Institution, for the training of the men who are, in future, to minister in our Chapels.

Moved by the Rev. James H. Rigg; seconded by Mr. Matthew M. Youll, of Newcastle-on-Tyne:

6. That this Meeting expresses its earnest hope that the proposed Compendium of Regulations respecting Wesleyan-Methodist Trust-property may be completed and sanctioned by the Conference.

Moved by Mr. Samuel R. Healey, of Liverpool; seconded by the Rev. Richard Ray:

7. That this Meeting offers its thanks to the Ministers, Trustees, Circuit-Chapel Secretaries, and District-Chapel Secretaries, and Committees, for their valuable services in connection with Chapel and other Trust business during the year.

Moved by Mr. T. P. Bunting, of Manchester; seconded by Mr. Henry Edmunds, of Halifax:

8. That the thanks of this Meeting are due, and are hereby presented, to John Fernley, Esq., and S. R. Healey, Esq., the Treasurers; to the Rev. John Bedford, the Secretary; to the Revs. William Edwards and J. V. B. Shrewsbury, Assistant-Secretaries; and to the Committee; for their faithful and arduous services during the year.

APPENDIX IV.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND,

HELD AT BIRMINGHAM, ON TUESDAY, JULY 25TH, 1865.

PRESENT, the Rev. Dr. Osborn, President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. John Farrar, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. C. Prest, ex-President; the Rev. F. A. West, and Mr. Vanner, the Treasurers of the Fund; the Rev. J. W. Greeves, Secretary; the Rev. A. M'Aulay, the Assistant Secretary; with other members of the Committee of Management, and the gentlemen elected by the District Committees to be members of this Committee.

The Report of the Committee of Management, and that of the Army Committee, having been read; and the recommendation of the Committee of Grants for Extraordinaries having been revised and approved; the following Resolutions were passed unanimously:—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Waddy; and seconded by Mr. H. J. Atkinson:

1. That, in recommending the adoption of these Reports to the Conference, the Committee expresses its continued satisfaction with the progress of the Home-Mission work, as indicated by its spiritual results in those to whom it is primarily addressed; in the increasing practical sympathy with it manifested by our Societies and congregations; in the religious tone and profitable character of Home-Missionary Anniversaries; and in the beneficial operation of these Missions on the other departments of the Connexion.

Moved by the Rev. Charles Prest; seconded by the Rev. H. H. Chettle; and supported by Mr. T. Twitchell, of Bedford, and Mr. J. H. Mason, of Newbury:

2. That this Meeting, while increasingly convinced of the need of additional Missionary work to meet the distressing claims of the Metropolis and of our large towns, and approving of the additional efforts made, and of others contemplated, to benefit the masses of their inhabitants; is also strongly of opinion that the maintenance and extension of Methodism in the villages of this kingdom require the invigoration of our work among them, and the adaptation of our plans to their urgent necessities, and commends the subject to the consideration of the Conference.

Moved by the Rev. S. R. Hall; seconded by Mr. W. Pearce, of London; and supported by Mr. W. W. Pocock, of London:

3. That this Committee, having heard the Report of the Army Committee for the past year, expresses its pleasure in the continued good understanding between the Army Committee and the Military Authorities at the War Office and Horse Guards; in the efforts made to extend this most needful work; and in the religious advantages which have resulted to many of the soldiers under our pastoral care. This Committee also approves of the steps taken by the Army Committee to secure for Wesleyan Methodists in the Royal Navy those facilities for attending our services, and receiving our pastoral care which are enjoyed by men in the other branch of the service.

Moved by the Rev. W. Arthur, M A.; seconded by Mr. John Farnworth, of Liverpool; and supported by Mr. S. R. Healey, of Liverpool:

4. That this Committee, in the view of the Home-Missionary work now being done, and that which is necessary to be undertaken, is strongly of opinion that the recently-increased liberality of the Connexion to the Home-Mission Fund requires much further enlargement, in order that the Committee and the Conference may prosecute their evangelical plans on a wider scale without embarrassment; and that Methodism may approximate more nearly to its fair proportion of effort, in promoting the conversion, as well as the social and personal happiness, of our fellow-countrymen.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. W. H. Stephenson, of Newcastle-on-Tyne; and supported by Mr. George Knowles, of Bolton:

5. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to John Vanner, Esq., and the Rev. F. A. West, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Charles Prest, and the Rev. J. W. Greeves, the Secretaries; to the Rev. A. M'Aulay, the Assistant-Secretary; and to the Committee of Management; for their valuable services during the year.

APPENDIX VI.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, JULY 22D, 1865.

The President of the Conference in the Chair.

It was resolved,—

1. That this Committee has heard with regret that a large balance is due to the Treasurers; and while recommending to the Conference that the payments to the Supernumeraries and Widows be made in full this year, it would respectfully urge the claims of this Fund upon the earnest attention of all the Ministers, and upon the due support of all our members; as, should the income of the Fund fail to meet the expenditure in future, it will be necessary that a pro ratâ deduction be made from the Annuities, so as to prevent any increase of the debt.

2. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to William Smith, Esq., and the Rev. John Rattenbury, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, the Secretary; also to the District Treasurers, and the Circuit Treasurers; for their services during the past year.

3. That the cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to those friends who, during the past year, have generously aided this Fund by special Donations; and also to those Executors who have promptly paid sundry Legacies on its behalf.

4. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. Walter Griffith and Mr. Greaves Walker, for their services as Auditors during the year; and that they be re-appointed.

APPENDIX VII.

MEETING OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF REVIEW OF THE WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION,

HELD IN BIRMINGHAM, JULY 25TH, 1865.

The President of the Conference in the Chair.

PRESENT, the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Rev. Messrs. Arthur, Barrett, J. D. Geden, Dr. Hannah, B. Hellier, William Jackson, J. Lomas, P. M'Owan, W. B. Pope, W. M. Punshon, J. Rattenbury, John Scott, W. W. Stamp, Dr. Waddy, F. A. West, and others.

Also, James Heald, Esq., General Treasurer; Messrs. James S. Budgett, T. P. Bunting, J. Fernley, S. R. Healey, J. R. Kay, William M'Arthur, William Mewburn, John Vanner, and others.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by Mr. Isaac Holden, M.P.; seconded by Mr. Panton:

1. That this Meeting receives with grateful satisfaction the Reports of the Governors and Examiners, now read; unites in devout thanks to Almighty God for the encouraging tokens of success which He continues to this branch of our work; and recommends that the thanks of the Conference be given to the Governors and Tutors in both Branches, to the General and Local Treasurers, and to the Secretaries, for their valuable services, during the year.

Moved by Mr. Mewburn; seconded by the Rev. W. M. Punshon, A.M.:

2. That this Meeting is convinced that the time has come, when, except in a few rare cases, no candidate should be introduced into the ministry who has not had a specific training; and, as it appears that at least one hundred and eighty students should be constantly in a course of preparation to meet the necessities of the work of God at home and abroad, this Meeting respectfully requests the Conference to consider how far it may be practicable to make arrangements to second this object.

Moved by Mr. J. S. Budgett; seconded by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, A.M.:

3. That, as the existing sources of income have failed to yield adequate support to the Institution, and as there is a prospect of increased expenditure, an appeal should be made to the Connexion at large, to meet the present deficiencies by means of a Public Collection; and the Meeting, therefore, respectfully requests the Conference to authorise such a Collection.

APPENDIX VIII.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION,

TOGETHER WITH MINISTERS AND FRIENDS INVITED ACCORDING TO THE DIRECTION OF THE LAST CONFERENCE.

BIRMINGHAM, JULY 24TH, 1865.

PRESENT, the Ex-President, the Rev. C. Prest, in the Chair; the Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. John Scott, Principal; the Rev. Dr. Jobson and John Robinson Kay, Esq., Treasurers; and a large number of Ministers.

Also, Messrs. Heeley, Perks, Holdsworth, Turner, and others, of Birmingham; M'Arthur, Pearce, Pocock, and Vanner, of London; Mewburn, of Banbury; Walker, of Cheltenham; Hartley and Fowler, of Wolverhampton; Mitchell, of Bradford; Bunting and Berrie, of Manchester; Farnworth and Healey, of Liverpool; Fernley, of Southport; Davis, Bloomer, and Lees, of Hill-Top; Ward, of West-Bromwich; Osborn, of Rochester; Atkinson, of Hull; Dingley, of Sherborne; Meek, of Wigan; James, of Carlisle; Dyson, of York; Panton, of Sunderland; Mease, of North-Shields; Edge, of Burslem; Avery, of Redditch; Bowden, of Totness; Groom, of Wellington; Mason, of Newbury; Window, of Exeter; and many others.

The Minutes of the Education Committee, and its various Sub-Committees, for the year, were read. It appeared that the Revised Code had come into general operation, with less financial injury to the larger Schools than had been feared. In accordance with the appointment of the last Conference, the Rev. John Clulow had visited many of our Sunday-schools in different parts of the country, and had prepared a deeply interesting Report, relative to rules of Schools, classification, infants, elder scholars, teachers, catechetical instruction, and attendance at chapel; along with the suggestions of the May District-Meetings in respect to Sabbath-schools. The death of Mr. Henry Armstrong, Wesleyan Day-school Inspector, was recorded with deep regret; and, pending the supply of the vacancy thus caused, it was hoped that the Rev. J. Clulow might be duly authorized, as opportunity may serve, to visit and inquire into the general condition of our Day-schools, and their religious state in particular, and to report thereon to the Committee from time to time. To the sorrow and anxiety of the Committee, the Secretary had been almost wholly laid aside from his duties by severe and continued indisposition. A temporary arrangement for their discharge, so far as possible, had been made during the past year, and it was thought desirable, under the special circumstances, that it should be continued during the ensuing year. The book-agency had been conducted with satisfactory results; and some suggestions had been made with a view to extending its operations, in the circulation of Wesleyan publications in our Sunday as well as Week-day Schools. The subject of additional class-rooms to the Normal School had been under consideration, but no formal decision had been reached. There had been some falling off in the supply of male Students in the Institution, but there is reason to believe that this will not be lasting. In the mean time, with the concurrence of the Committee of Council, a larger number of female Students than usual had been admitted in January last. During the year, 668 Pupil-Teachers were examined in religious knowledge, of whom 408 were classed in the two upper divisions, and 260 in the two lower. A revised programme for the examination in March, 1866, was issued in the spring. (See Report, p. 68.) The amount of Government aid to Wesleyan Day-schools last year was £28,302 1*s.* 6*d.*, being a decrease of £7,820 11*s.* 3*d.*, due partly to the operation of the Revised Code, and partly to the restrictions upon Building grants. The number of certificated Teachers was 465; of assistant teachers, 26; and of Pupil-Teachers, 658. During the year 123 Students were trained, all of whom passed the Government examination at Christmas last; 120 were examined in religious knowledge, of whom 116 passed; 75 candidates applied for admission last Christmas, of whom 67 passed the Government-admission examination; and, with one exception, entered the Institution. At Christmas last, 61 Students had been sent out to Schools, being a total of 727 from Westminster; and 68 Teachers had also been appointed. Six entirely new Schools had been erected, and 23 commenced in existing buildings; and 32 outfit grants were made by the General Committee, amounting to £985. The following statistics had been recently obtained:—Day-schools, 579; increase, 17 Scholars, 88,525; increase, 6,192: Sunday-schools 4,986; increase, 91: Sunday-scholars, 537,311; increase, 4,792: Scholars in Society, 29,356; increase, 2,566: in Select Religious Classes, 12,913: Teachers, (including officers,) 98,401; increase, 7,123: Cost of Sunday-schools, £34,397; increase, £1,174.

An abstract of the Report on the state of Sabbath-schools was given to the Meeting; and the following Resolutions were passed unanimously:—

On the motion of the Rev. Dr. Hannah; seconded by Mr. Samuel Lees, of Hill-Top; supported by Mr. John Napier, of Manchester:

1. That this Meeting has heard, with gratitude to Almighty God, that the work of the Training College has been successfully carried on during the year, notwithstanding the illness of the Secretary, the Rev. M. C. Taylor. The Meeting offers its affectionate sympathy to Mr. Taylor in his affliction, and earnestly hopes that, by the blessing of God on the means used for his recovery, he will be speedily restored to his usual health. The Meeting, also, rejoices in the continued prosperity of the Day-schools, notwithstanding the lamented death of Mr. Armstrong; and expresses its sorrowful sympathy with his bereaved widow, and his seven fatherless children.

On the motion of the Rev. George Scott (A); seconded by Mr. John Hartley, of Wolverhampton; supported by Mr. John Fernley, of Southport:

2. That this Meeting is not surprised to find that its anticipations, as to the tendency of the New Code to deteriorate the quality of education given in elementary schools, are confirmed by several of Her Majesty's Inspectors, who, in reporting the state of education to the Committee of Council and to Parliament, relate it as a fact, that, in schools which they have inspected, the higher branches of instruction, and the education of the minds of the children, are less regarded, while attention is concentrated upon the three subjects required by the Code in order to obtain pecuniary assistance from the national funds. The Meeting, however, is glad to know, from the testimony of the Inspectors, that this tendency is resisted by Teachers in Wesleyan Schools.

On the motion of the Rev. William Shaw (A); seconded by Mr. J. Atkinson, Mayor of Hull; supported by Mr. Henry Mitchell, of Bradford:

3. The Meeting is aware that a Parliamentary inquiry is being instituted into the administration of the public Grant in aid of Education, and that views may possibly be propounded, which, if adopted, would produce material change in the system that has been for many years in such beneficial operation. This Meeting trusts that no interference with the denominational character of the education given will be sanctioned by Parliament, but that the several denominations will be at liberty to teach the children religion in the future, as they do at present.

On the motion of the Rev. John Hall; seconded by Mr. George Knowles, of Bolton; supported by the Rev. James H. Rigg, and Mr. T. P. Bunting, of Manchester:

4. That this Meeting is gratified to learn, from the Minutes now read, that Mr. Clulow has, through the year, proceeded with great diligence to collect information on the state of Sunday-schools, and has furnished the valuable Report, an abstract of which has been given to the Meeting; that this Meeting strongly recommends the continuance of Mr. Clulow's appointment, to enable him to complete his inquiries under the direction of the Education Committee; and hopes that, on the consideration of his entire Report, the Committee will be prepared to make such suggestions for the improvement of our Sabbath-school system as may bring the whole question under the notice of the Conference.

On the motion of the Rev. John Scott; seconded by Mr. John Robinson Kay:

5. That this Committee considers the necessity continues unabated for providing a suitable chapel at Westminster, in which provision shall be made for the children of the College Schools, as well as for the Teachers and the congregation; and, as preparatory efforts for its erection have only been delayed until it should be declared that the convenient time for making such efforts had fully arrived, this Committee recommends to the Conference attention to this important object; and that, as soon as practicable, efforts be made to obtain the means for securing to the College and the Connexion a commodious and suitable chapel.

On the motion of the Rev. Dr. Waddy; seconded by Mr. John Vanner, of London; supported by Mr. William Mewburn, of Banbury:

6. That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. John Scott, for the diligence and ability with which he has conducted the Normal Institution, and the affairs of Wesleyan Education, during the past year.

On the motion of Mr. Solomon Mease, of North-Shields; seconded by Mr. Edge, of Burslem:

7. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to John Robinson Kay, Esq., and the Rev. Dr. Jobson, Treasurers; to the Rev. M. C. Taylor, the Secretary; and to the members of the Acting Committee, for their faithful services during the year.

APPENDIX X.

CHAPEL FUND FOR WATERING PLACES.

Since the formation of the Fund for the Erection of Chapels in Watering Places, forty applications have been received. Five have been declined as not coming within the province of the Committee; two are not ripe for decision; to twenty-nine, Grants amounting in the whole to £7,460 have been promised; and four have been delayed on account of the present exhaustion of the fund.

The total outlay on these cases will be about £32,000; and the aggregate number of sittings in the chapels thus assisted will be upwards of 10,000.

The sum promised to the Fund is, in round numbers, £7,400; the sum received is £5,500, of which £1,175 has been actually paid in Grants.
